From time to time we have cited outstanding instances where where merchants or manufacturers have selected newspapers as the best medium of advertising their product and through which they have attained the best financial results. The returns have been astonishing and each year there is an increase in the amount of newspaper space purchased by those who have some product to sell. Here are some additional illustrations:

"We have found no substitute for newspaper advertising," Donald R. Grimes, president of the 6,000-member Independent Grocers Alliance, told the 50th annual convention of the National American Wholesale Grocers Association last week.

"All types of advertising have a tremendous amount of merit," said Mr. Grimes, "but from our experience in the retail food field, very few forms of advertising have consistently been able to equal results obtained in newspapers."

More than 1,000,000 lines of newspaper advertising will be run in 71 daily and 196 weekly newspapers for a 10-week period, April 9-June 16, when 12 utility companies, serving 1,750,000 residential customers in seven states, will break one of the gas company's largest unified programs.

A Holy Week Feature

The story of Easter, from Biblical and historical accounts, will be retold in The Gettysburg Times. There will be one story each day for eight days, each dealing with a key personality among the people who surrounded Christ during Easter week.
George Cornell, religious reporter for The Associated Press, has dug deep into the background of these people to picture their weaknesses, their courage, wisdom and follies which helped build the glory that is Easter.
Equally graphic are the drawings by Guy Rowe to illustrate each story. Rowe, noted artist and fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in London, lists 62 Time Magazine covers among his works. But among religious readers, he may be even more vividly remembered for his pictures of Old Testament figures in the book, "In Our Image," which won the Christophers award in 1950. With text by Houston Harte, this book has been providing a new religious experience for thousands in recent years.
Rowe now is at work on a New Testament book, and the illustrations for the Easter series are black and white studies of the individuals who will be pictured in color in this new volume.
Rowe's own religious experience has been heightened since he drew the pictures for "In Our Image," and his powerful studies of John, Judas, Nicodemus, Peter, Pilate, Pretonius, Mary and Mary Magdalene reflect the fresh vitality he has found in religion. Of the sensitive faces of these eight characters, he says: "This is what seems important to me."
Cornell, one of the outstanding religious reporters in the country, has pictured these same eight people in words with power and beauty to match Rowe's artistry. The first article will be published in The Times Friday, March 23.

of the Gettysburg College faculty and their wives were guests.

"There have been two great political movements in America in the 20th century," he told the group, "what might be termed 'Progressivism' at the turn of the century followed by what might be termed the 'New Deal' movement of a later date."

Describes 'New Deal'
"The progressive movement came from the urban middle class who sought to popularize democracy and were against machine politics, the trusts and organized labor. They sought to keep individualism alive in an industrial society, and wanted to completely divorce the administration of government from politics."
"The progressive movement was followed by the new deal movement which in a sense is a continuation of the series of reforms of the progressive movement. While the progressive movement was out to stop such things as the political machine and restore prior concepts, the new deal movement had to look ahead in a definite way. It had to come to grips with the problem of a depression. It was not as hostile towards trusts, organized labor, farmers, and the political machine was encouraged."

WWGC Will Mark 10th Anniversary

Gettysburg College's campus radio station, WWGC, will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Saturday. More than 100 persons, representing 24 college radio stations, will participate in a day-long program that includes an Intercollegiate Broadcasting System conference, a banquet and an open house to be held by WWGC.

The main speaker at the Saturday night banquet will be Bob Harrison from radio station WBFD, Bedford, Pa. Other speakers are William Paulsgrove, WJEF, Hagerstown, and James Redman, WHP, Harrisburg. Representatives from New York University, Adelphi College, Hofstra, Lehigh, Muhlenberg and Lafayette will be included among the 24 participating schools.

In its 10 years station WWGC has grown from one studio to a well-equipped plant that now includes three broadcasting studios, a reception room, a business office and a control room. The record library has increased from less than 1,000 records in 1946 to 5,000 and the original staff of 25 students has grown to 105. The station, a member of the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System, is equipped with full-time United Press teletype service.

Starting in this year's Easter parade is a complete line of quality boys' wear from Bix-Sway Boys' Shop, 24 Chambersburg St.

From time to time we have cited outstanding instances where where merchants or manufacturers have selected newspapers as the best medium of advertising their product and through which they have attained the best financial results. The returns have been astonishing and each year there is an increase in the amount of newspaper space purchased by those who have some product to sell. Here are some additional illustrations:

"We have found no substitute for newspaper advertising," Donald R. Grimes, president of the 6,000-member Independent Grocers Alliance, told the 50th annual convention of the National American Wholesale Grocers Association last week.

"All types of advertising have a tremendous amount of merit," said Mr. Grimes, "but from our experience in the retail food field, very few forms of advertising have consistently been able to equal results obtained in newspapers."

More than 1,000,000 lines of newspaper advertising will be run in 71 daily and 196 weekly newspapers for a 10-week period, April 9-June 16, when 12 utility companies, serving 1,750,000 residential customers in seven states, will break one of the gas company's largest unified programs. ## MISS KLUNK GETS AWARD FOR SERVICE

Miss Sylvia E. Klunk, of New Oxford, employed at the Farmers Home Administration offices on York St., as county office clerk, received a cash award today for "superior performance."

Miss Klunk's award was made by the Farmers Home Administration's state director, George M. Hummer, Harrisburg.

The award carried a cash compensation of $98 because she sustained above average performance of assigned duties.

Miss Klunk has been employed by the Farmers Home Administration since September, 1952.

Mr. Hummer said the FHA regards the awards program as a way "to recognize the initiative and outstanding work being done by employees. Continued emphasis on awards for deserving employees for superior performance and beneficial suggestion is a policy of the agency. Such awards come under the government-wide incentive awards program authorized by the 83rd Congress for the benefit of both the employees and the federal government."

The FHA lends funds to farmers when local, private or cooperative sources cannot, under the farmers' circumstances, supply adequate credit for better farming practices, operating needs, farm improvements or purchase or enlargement of farms. Loans may also include funds for soil and water conservation purposes. Farm management service is provided by the county supervisor, working with other local agencies, to help farmers make the best possible use of the credit. # PARTIES SPLIT ON CHANGE IN ELECTORAL VOTE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — For 159 years—ever since 1797—Congress has talked about amending the Constitution to change the Electoral College system of choosing a president and vice president. The Senate, debating it again, is wading in muddy water. Democrats and Republicans are divided among themselves. Neither friends nor foes of the amendment being considered can positively predict its ultimate effect if it became law.

The framers of the Constitution didn't foresee the rise of the big political parties which use the electoral system this way: Each party in each state picks a slate of electors. When a party's candidate wins the popular vote in a state, all that party's electors vote for its candidate although, under the Constitution, they could vote for whom they pleased.

Called A Weak Spot
This has long been criticized as a weak spot in the electoral system. Why not a constitutional amendment to let a president and vice president be chosen directly by popular vote?

The three-part main proposal for amending the Constitution now being considered in the Senate would retain the electoral system but work this way, with some of the arguments being offered against it:

No. 1. No candidate would automatically get all of a state's electoral votes. Each candidate would get a portion of a state's electors in proportion to his popular vote.

Population, Size Wrangle
Argument against: Big states whose popular vote might be pretty evenly divided—and thus have their electoral vote divided—would lose the importance and value of their big population. Smaller states, particularly those where one party dominates, would gain and might control an election.

No. 2. Instead of doing it the proportional way, a state legislature could decide to let the voters choose electors the way they pick members of Congress: two electors would be chosen for the whole state (as senators are) and the rest would be elected by congressional districts.

Rural Influence
Argument against: Rural areas have too much influence now—both in state legislatures and the way congressional districts are set—in proportion to their numbers. This would give them even

DEATH OF BOY, 7, BRINGS CHARGES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charges of criminal negligence have been lodged against the parents of a seven-year-old boy who died of diabetes last month. The couple, Edward B. and Mary Cornelius, of suburban Swarthmore, yesterday was held on bail of $1,000 each for grand jury action.

At a hearing, which the Corneliuses did not attend, Dr. Joseph W. Spelman, medical examiner, found the parents criminally responsible for the death of their son, David, in having refused to give him insulin as prescribed by a doctor.

Dop. Dist. Atty. Vincent G. Parnati cited that the state law specified that parents are legally bound to abide by medical advice given them concerning their children, no matter what the parents' religious belief.

He said the Corneliuses are Christian Scientists.

PHONE RATES WILL BE RAISED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rates of the Denver and Ephrata Telephone and Telegraph Co., Ephrata, will be increased $59,500 annually April 1 for 12,000 subscribers in Lancaster, Lebanon and Berks counties.

In approving the boost yesterday the Public Utility Commission said monthly rates will be higher for the Ephrata and Litzitz areas because subscribers can call more numbers without paying tolls than persons in the other three areas.

Rates in Ephrata, Litzitz, Adamstown, Denver and Manheim exchanges are now the same.

Present and new rates: Ephrata and Litzitz—Residence: Single line, from $3.75 to $4.25; two-party, from $3 to $3.50; four and multi-party, from $2.50 to $2.60. Business: Single line, from $5.50 to $6.25; two-party, from $4.50 to $5.25; four and multi-party, from $3.50 to $4.25.

DULLES REPORT "MODERATELY OPTIMISTIC"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today gave Democratic and Republican congressional leaders a "moderately optimistic" report on his just-completed trip to the Far East.

President Eisenhower sat in as Dulles made his report to 22 leaders of Congress at the White House.

"Our Marco Polo secretary made some jaunt," said Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) in reference to Dulles' 19-day journey to 10 Asian nations.

The keynote sounded by several Congress members after today's session was that Dulles had painted a temperately optimistic picture of conditions in the Middle East and Far East.

Dulles was to testify later before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the foreign aid bill. The committee heard Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, commander of NATO forces, at a closed session this morning.

Music sung during the Mass should provide a background for prayer but should not overshadow the Divine Sacrifice."

Farms Best For Raising Children

"Rural area people generally make the best jurors—they are recognized for their sound judgment," Pfc. David K. James, of the local state police barracks, told 77 members of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association at their annual banquet Tuesday evening at Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church.

Speaking on "Crime and the Farm," Officers James told the group, "Farms are the best places to raise children. If all children were farm children there would be practically no juvenile delinquency problem, and very few other crimes. Farming calls for an assumption of responsibility and a devotion to duty that becomes imbedded in the farm youngster. As a result few become delinquent, and they grow into good and desirable citizens."

James added, "The most frequent crime practiced against farmers is false pretense. Far too many sharpshiners visit farmers to seek to sell them something which is not what they represent it to be. Fortunately they are becoming less successful in their efforts."

Elected as directors of the SDHA for the coming year were: Clay Snyder, Gardners R. 2; H. Russell Grove, also of Gardners R. 2; J. Allen Spangler, Aspers R. 1; Glenn Sterner, Gettysburg R. 1; Mervin Myers, Littlestown R. 2; Earl Brandon, Gettysburg R. 2; and B. J. Griffie, York Springs R. D. Retiring president Joseph Stoner presided.

HEIRESS SUES PSYCHIATRIST FOR $1,500,000

NEW YORK (AP)—An heiress to a washing machine fortune is suing a woman psychiatrist for $1½ million dollars, contending the doctor lied to a relative about her mental condition and precipitated a long court battle before she got her inheritance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Maytag Revyuk charged in State Supreme Court yesterday that Dr. Flanders Dunbar, with offices on Fifth Avenue, falsified her mental condition in a "corrupt bargain" with her brother, Frederick L. Maytag, president of the washing machine firm.

At Newton, Iowa, last night, Maytag declined comment on the suit.

Calls Charges Scandalous
Dr. Dunbar's attorney termed the allegations false and scandalous.

The suit alleges that Dr. Dunbar and Maytag reached an understanding "whereby the doctor agreed, for a consideration, to cooperate with and to assist my brother to withhold from me the property left to me by my father."

The father, E. H. Maytag, died in 1940. His will put most of his five-million-dollar estate in trust for Mrs. Revyuk; a sister, Mrs. Mary Louise Cahill, and their two brothers, Frederick and Robert.

Her share of the estate, Mrs. Revyuk said, amounted to $1½ million and she was to have received it no later than July 20, 1950.

But due to the psychiatrist's alleged statements to her brother Frederick, Mrs. Revyuk said, she did not get her share of the estate until "some five years later."

Mrs. Revyuk said the legal battle to share in the estate cost her more than $100,000.

Mrs. Revyuk claims she consulted Dr. Dunbar only from April to June 1947, and then stopped "when upon coming to her office on a number of occasions . . . I found her utterly or partially intoxicated . . . and entirely unable to perform properly her duties as a physician."

Mrs. Revyuk, in her suit, further alleges:

"On June 16, 1950, the physician illegally and maliciously and without my consent told my brother, Frederick L. Maytag, one of the trustees of my father's estate, that I was subject to hysteria, underdeveloped and immature mentally, that I needed psychiatric treatment and would very possibly go over the brink and develop a real psychosis, that I was easily susceptible to dominance and exploitation and that I was quite skilled in telling convincing untruths."

"The statements were false and untrue and they were known by the doctor to be false and untrue."

MRS. BASEHORE 85 WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Luther H. Basehore, 12 S. Washington St., mother of Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, outgoing chairman of the Republican Party in Adams County, received the following letter from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the occasion of her 85th birthday Wednesday:

"I am very happy to join with your devoted family and wide circle of friends in extending warm and cordial congratulations on your eighty-fifth birthday on March twenty-first."

"I am sure that your Special Day will be a most delightful one and it is my earnest hope that enduring peace and abiding happiness will be yours in abundance in the years ahead."

The celebrant, who enjoys good health and does her own house work, is the former Miss Minnie Robert, daughter of the late Leiah Hartman and Amos Robert. She was born in Franklin Twp. and came to Gettysburg to live about 12 years ago. Her husband died in Seven Stars in 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. Basehore had four children: John H., Gettysburg; George M., Baltimore; Fred, Shippenburg, a retired U.S. Navy man who is working for a BA degree in elementary education at the Shippenburg State Teachers College, and Mrs. Alan Thompson, Westfield, N. J. There are five grandchildren.

TEST SEIZURE OF STRUCK BUSES IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE (AP) — The public utility seizure law, under which the state seized and is operating the labor-troubled Baltimore Transit Co., was definitely ticketed today for a court test.

The company said yesterday "it will take such action in such tribunals as is proper under the circumstances" to test the legality of the new legislation.

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin, armed with the seizure bill, took over the company for the state March 6. A 33-day strike of 2,000 members of the Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees ended four days later.

A 16-day period of mediation provided under the law ended yesterday. McKeldin then took the next step provided in the legislation, ordering the contract differences submitted to a board of arbitration. The board's findings would be binding.

Appeals To Courts
He called together representatives of the union and company and directed them to each name one member of the three-man board. Those two members would then have chosen a third. The union promptly complied.

Mrs. Charles Thomas Is Buried Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Belle Thomas, wife of Charles Thomas, who died suddenly Monday morning at her Butler Twp. home, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Peters Funeral Home with her pastor, the Rev. The pallbearers were Arthur Ebbert, Earl Smith, Cassian Andrews, Warren Boyer, Ray Hess and Chester Cashman.

naming O. David Zimring, Chicago labor lawyer.

The company declined to name anyone. It will take its case to Federal Court today or tomorrow. Joseph Sherbow, company negotiator, said: "We have maintained all along that compulsory arbitration is not the cure and is invalid."

Dale W. Barratt, BTC president, at one time threatened to resign if forced into binding arbitration. The governor has on his desk an amendment to the seizure law which would give him authority to name the arbitration board if the company or union refused to name their representatives. But he has not signed it yet and has given no indication whether he plans to.

THREE KILLED IN ROCK SLIDE

OAKLAND, Md. (AP)—State police said three Garrett County employees were killed today in a rock slide at the Garrett County Stone Quarry at Sang Run, about 12 miles northwest of here.

They were identified as Randall Wilburn, quarry foreman in his 40s who left a widow and four children and lived at nearby Hokes; Henry Ford Friend, of near Friendsville, in his 60's, and Lloyd Guard, who boarded in a home at Sang Run.

Friend is survived by a widow; Guard was unmarried. Aubrey C. Brenneman, Garrett County commissioner, said the three men were killed about 8 a.m. He said they had been working at the top of the quarry attempting to loosen rock when a huge rock, estimated at 20 tons, gave way and roared to the bottom of the 30-foot cut.

The men were thrown off their feet in the slide and toppled to the bottom of the cut behind the big rock. Other rocks, estimated at between 300 and 400 pounds, poured down behind them and crushed them against the bigger rock.

The bodies were removed from the pile of rocks by other workers in the county-owned quarry. The quarry is located in a wooded isolated section in the western part of the county.

Will Decide About Second Health Fair

Whether there will be another Adams County Health Fair next year will be decided at a meeting of the Adams County Council of Community Services at the VFW April 12, it was announced Wednesday evening at the close of the first fair at the former High St. school.

John Y. Crow, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Health Fair, is scheduled to give his complete report at the April 12 meeting. While attendance was described as light, officials of the fair said those who attended were "enthusiastic" about the event.

SCHOOLS RESIST CENSURE MOVE; LOYALTY PROBED

By LEE GARRETT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two university presidents have challenged a censure move aimed by a special committee of professors at their handling of loyalty charges against faculty members.

A committee of the American Assn. of University Professors recommended last night censure of the administrations of the University of California, Ohio State, Rutgers and Temple universities, and the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia.

"Invocation of the Fifth Amendment by a faculty member . . . the committee said, 'cannot be in itself a sufficient ground for removing him.' It said the same applies to a refusal to sign loyalty oaths, and accused the five schools of improper treatment of faculty members involved in such charges.

"Drafted Some Time Ago"

In Berkeley, Calif., President Robert Gordon Sproul of the University of California said the report "was obviously drafted some time ago." If it were redrafted "on the basis of current facts," he added, "it is doubtful that it would make the same charges or reach the same conclusions" regarding his school. A controversy over loyalty oaths was the principal point of criticism there.

In Columbus, President Howard L. Bevis of Ohio State said the committee published its findings "without notice, without hearing, and without knowledge of many important facts."

Findings At Ohio State

He said the finding against Ohio State was "based upon the premise . . . that dismissal of a faculty member for membership in the Communist party taken by itself is not warranted." Bevis challenged the premise and expressed belief no Communist party member "is fit to become or to remain a professor in a state university."

No Comment At Rutgers

Officials at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J., said they had no comment.

There was no immediate comment from officials of Temple University or Jefferson Medical College, both in Philadelphia.

There were no injuries. Firemen said a cutting torch used for an expansion project had started the blaze. There was no immediate estimate of damage.

also stated that in the state, the sum of $34,326.84 has been contributed to welfare and philanthropic projects and 113,116 hours have been given by club women, comparing the work of the state to the larger amount of good accomplished by the eleven million women who are members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Allen gave information concerning the forthcoming state convention to be held May 23 to 26 in Harrisburg, giving thumb-nail sketches of the speakers on that occasion. Mrs. Allen stated that every town council should have at least one woman member and every school board should have at least one woman member because the action taken by both of these groups is "close to the hearts of mothers everywhere."

Mrs. Sirtle Speaks

Qualified women in public office is a good thing for all concerned, she said. Mrs. Allen, who will go out of office when elections are held at the convention, expressed wishes for all club members for work, to challenge the best in them; for courage to help solve their problems; for truth to discover the facts to keep us free; for love, without which there could be no kindness, and for a strong faith, to live by.

Mrs. Allen presented Mrs. Joseph Sirtle, Shippensburg, vice president of the Junior Civic Club of that place, who spoke to the Junior Club members and met with them at the conclusion of the other session during the social hour.

The meeting of the Littlestown Woman's Club was conducted by the president, Mrs. Chester S. Byers, and opened with the pledge of allegiance and the club collect. Reports were heard from Mrs. Fred F. Blocher and Mrs. Paul E. Alloff. Mrs. Anna B. Leach reported for the cheer committee.

Plan Fashion Show

Mrs. John F. Feeser Jr., chairman of the committee for the April meeting which will be a Fashion Show, announced that the meeting will be held on Thursday, April 19, instead of Wednesday, at Banker's on N. Queen St. All club members who wish to show a fashion of their own creation, or of someone in their immediate family, are asked to contact Mrs. Feeser by April 15, in order that the commentary and order of program may be prepared. The girls of the Senior class of the Littlestown High School will be invited guests and the committee decided to observe guest night for all club members, with a small charge for each guest attending with a club member. A complete outfit of clothing will be given away. Assisting Mrs. Feeser on the committee will be Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Mrs. Earl L. Stiles, Mrs. Emory Gilt, Mrs. Donald Z. Mann,

Mrs. Robert W. Hall and Mrs. Donald C. Sheely.

Vote Donations

Mrs. Byers announced that donations of individual members will be received by Mrs. Claude White for the Woman's Medical College, up to March 31. A request for a donation to the Adams County Day Care Training Center for Retarded Children, the work of which was explained by Mrs. Frederic Grist, was tabled.

The club voted to endorse the amendment to the bylaws of the General Federation to increase the dues to 50 cents per member per club. Mrs. Byers welcomed and recognized the members of the newly organized Junior Woman's Club in attendance. A $5 contribution was voted to the Cancer Society and $2 to the Adams County Society for Crippled Children as provided in the budget.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the following hostesses committee: Mrs. John H. Flickinger, chairman, Mrs. Paul Bowman, Mrs. Willis Snyder, Mrs. George P. Smith, Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, Mrs. Howard Myers and Mrs. Melvin B. Wehler.

York Springs Will Decide About Second Health Fair

Whether there will be another Adams County Health Fair next year will be decided at a meeting of the Adams County Council of Community Services at the VFW April 12, it was announced Wednesday evening at the close of the first fair at the former High St. school.

John Y. Crow, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Health Fair, is scheduled to give his complete report at the April 12 meeting. While attendance was described as light, officials of the fair said those who attended were "enthusiastic" about the event.

The cost of the fair will be divided among the Community Services Council and organizations participating in the fair. The general committee expressed its appreciation to all who aided and especially thanked Wilbur Plank for use of the building and facilities.

SCHOOLS RESIST CENSURE MOVE; LOYALTY PROBED

By LEE GARRETT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two university presidents have challenged a censure move aimed by a special committee of professors at their handling of loyalty charges against faculty members.

A committee of the American Assn. of University Professors recommended last night censure of the administrations of the University of California, Ohio State, Rutgers and Temple universities, and the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia.

"Invocation of the Fifth Amendment by a faculty member . . . the committee said, 'cannot be in itself a sufficient ground for removing him.' It said the same applies to a refusal to sign loyalty oaths, and accused the five schools of improper treatment of faculty members involved in such charges."

"Drafted Some Time Ago"

In Berkeley, Calif., President Robert Gordon Sproul of the University of California said the report "was obviously drafted some time ago." If it were redrafted "on the basis of current facts," he added, "it is doubtful that it would make the same charges or reach the same conclusions" regarding his school. A controversy over loyalty oaths was the principal point of criticism there.

In Columbus, President Howard L. Bevis of Ohio State said the committee published its findings "without notice, without hearing, and without knowledge of many important facts."

Findings At Ohio State

He said the finding against Ohio State was "based upon the premise . . . that dismissal of a faculty member for membership in the Communist party taken by itself is not warranted." Bevis challenged the premise and expressed belief no Communist party member "is fit to become or to remain a professor in a state university."

No Comment At Rutgers
Officials at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J., said they had no comment.

There was no immediate comment from officials of Temple University or Jefferson Medical College, both in Philadelphia.

There were no injuries.

Firemen said a cutting torch used for an expansion project had started the blaze. There was no immediate estimate of damage.

A dash of sugar, sprinkled over thin onion rings as you cook them in butter, makes for good flavor. Serve with hamburgers or steak.

Mrs. Allen gave information concerning the forthcoming state convention to be held May 23 to 26 in Harrisburg, giving thumb-nail sketches of the speakers on that occasion. Qualified women in public office is a good thing for all concerned, she said. Mrs. Allen, who will go out of office when elections are held at the convention, expressed wishes for all club members for work, to challenge the best in them; for courage to help solve their problems; for truth to discover the facts to keep us free; for love, without which there could be no kindness, and for a strong faith, to live by.

Mrs. Allen presented Mrs. Joseph Strite, Shippensburg, vice president of the Junior Civic Club of that place, who spoke to the Junior Club members and met with them at the conclusion of the other session during the social hour.

Queen St. All club members who wish to show a fashion of their own creation, or of someone in their immediate family, are asked to contact Mrs. Feesser by April 15, in order that the commentary and order of program may be prepared. The girls of the Senior class of the Littlestown High School will be invited guests and the committee decided to observe guest night for all Club members, with a small charge for each guest attending with a club member. A complete outfit of clothing will be given away. Assisting Mrs. Feesser on the committee will be Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Mrs. Earl L. Sutes, Mrs. Emory Gitt, Mrs. Donald Z. Mann,

Mrs. Robert W. Hall and Mrs. Donald C. Sheely.

Vote Donations

Mrs. Byers announced that donations of individual members will be received by Mrs. Claude White for the Woman's Medical College, up to March 31. A request for a donation to the Adams County Day Care Training Center for Retarded Children, the work of which was explained by Mrs. Frederic Griest, was tabled.

The club voted to endorse the amendment to the bylaws of the General Federation to increase the dues to 50 cents per member per club. Mrs. Byers welcomed and recognized the members of the newly organized Junior Woman's Club in attendance. A $5 contribution was voted to the Cancer Society and $2 to the Adams County Society for Crippled Children as provided in the budget.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the following hostess committee: Mrs. John H. Flickinger, chairman, Mrs. Paul Bowman, Mrs. Willis Snyder, Mrs. George P. Smith, Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, Mrs. Howard Myers and Mrs. Melvin B. Wehler.

DULLES REPORT "MODERATELY OPTIMISTIC"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today gave Democratic and Republican congressional leaders a "moderately optimistic" report on his just-completed trip to the Far East.

President Eisenhower sat in as Dulles made his report to 22 leaders of Congress at the White House.

"Our Marco Polo secretary made some jaunt," said Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) in reference to Dulles' 18-day journey to 10 Asian nations.

The keynote sounded by several Congress members after today's session was that Dulles had painted a temperately optimistic picture of conditions in the Middle East and Far East.

Dulles was to testify later before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the foreign aid bill. The committee heard Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, commander of NATO forces, at a closed session this morning.

Farms Best For Raising Children

"Rural area people generally make the best jurors—they are recognized for their sound judgment," Pfc. David K. James, of the local state police barracks, told 77 members of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association at their annual banquet Tuesday evening at Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church.

Speaking on "Crime and the Farm," Officers James told the group, "Farms are the best places to raise children. If all children were farm children there would be practically no juvenile delinquency problem, and very few other crimes. Farming calls for an assumption of responsibility and a devotion to duty that becomes imbedded in the farm youngster. As a result few become delinquent, and they grow into good and desirable citizens."

James added, "The most frequent crime practiced against farmers is false pretense. Far too many sharpsters visit farmers to seek to sell them something which is not what they represent it to be. Fortunately they are becoming less successful in their efforts."

Elected as directors of the ADHA for the coming year were: Clay Snyder, Gardners R. 2; H. Russell Grove, also of Gardners R. 2; J. Allen Spangler, Aspers R. 1; Glenn Sterner, Gettysburg R. 1; Mervyn Brydens, Littlestown R. 2; Earl Myerson, Gettysburg R. 2, and B. J. Griffie, York Springs R. D. # HEIRESS SUES PSYCHIATRIST FOR $1,500,000

NEW YORK (AP)—An heiress to a washing machine fortune is suing a woman psychiatrist for 1½ million dollars, contending the doctor lied to a relative about her mental condition and precipitated a long court battle before she got her inheritance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Maytag Revyuk charged in State Supreme Court yesterday that Dr. Flanders Dunbar, with offices on Fifth Avenue, falsified her mental condition in a "corrupt bargain" with her brother, Frederick L. Maytag, president of the washing machine firm.

At Newton, Iowa, last night, Maytag declined comment on the suit.

Calls Charges Scandalous
Dr. Dunbar's attorney termed the allegations false and scandalous.

The suit alleges that Dr. Dunbar and Maytag reached an understanding "whereby the doctor agreed, for a consideration, to cooperate with and to assist my brother to withhold from me the property left to me by my father."

The father, E. H. Maytag, died in 1940. His will put most of his five-million-dollar estate in trust for Mrs. Revyuk; a sister, Mrs. Mary Louise Cahill, and their two brothers, Frederick and Robert.

To Receive Share July, 1950
Her share of the estate, Mrs. Revyuk said, amounted to 1½ million and she was to have received it no later than July 20, 1950.

But due to the psychiatrist's alleged statements to her brother Frederick, Mrs. Revyuk said, she did not get her share of the estate until "some five years later."

Mrs. Revyuk said the legal battle to share in the estate cost her more than $100,000.

Mrs. Revyuk claims she consulted Dr. Dunbar only from April to June 1947, and then stopped "when upon coming to her office on a number of occasions . . . I found her utterly or partially intoxicated . . . and entirely unable to perform properly her duties as a physician."

Mrs. Revyuk, in her suit, further alleges:

"On June 16, 1950, the physician illegally and maliciously and without my consent told my brother, Frederick L. Maytag, one of the trustees of my father's estate, that I was subject to hysteria, underdeveloped and immature mentally, that I needed psychiatric treatment and would very possibly go over the brink and develop a real psychosis, that I was easily susceptible to dominance and exploitation and that I was quite skilled in telling convincing untruths."

"The statements were false and untrue and they were known by the doctor to be false and untrue . . ."

MRS. BASEHORE + 85 WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Luther H. Basehore, 12 S. Washington St., mother of Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, outgoing chairman of the Republican Party in Adams County, received the following letter from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the occasion of her 85th birthday Wednesday:

"I am very happy to join with your devoted family and wide circle of friends in extending warm and cordial congratulations on your eighty-fifth birthday on March twenty-first."

"I am sure that your Special Day will be a most delightful one and it is my earnest hope that enduring peace and abiding happiness will be yours in abundance in the years ahead."

The celebrant, who enjoys good health and does her own house work, is the former Miss Minnie Robert, daughter of the late Lelah Hartman and Amos Robert. She was born in Franklin Twp. and came to Gettysburg to live about 12 years ago. Her husband died in Seven Stars in 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. Basehore had four children: John H., Gettysburg; George M., Baltimore; Fred, Shippenburg, a retired U. S. Navy man who is working for a BA degree in elementary education at the Shippenburg State Teachers College; and Mrs. Alan Thompson, Westfield, N. J. There are five grandchildren.

Vicar Hughes, Of Episcopal Church, Dies: After an illness of several weeks due to angina pectoris, the Venerable Archdeacon A. A. Hughes, 49, died at his home at the rectory at Mount Alto sanatorium Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

He was vicar of the chapel of the Prince of Peace in Gettysburg as well as Episcopal chaplain at Mount Alto sanatorium, rector of the Emmanuel chapel in Mount Alto and in charge of work at Christ church, York Springs.

Citizens Respond To 11-State Appeal For Aid to Flood Areas: Led by the local chapter of the Red Cross, the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion and the Gettysburg Fire company, Gettysburg and Adams county swung into action Friday to gather food, clothing and cash for relief of 40,000 families driven from their homes by flood waters.

The Adams county Red Cross was seeking $1,250, its share of the $3,000,000 being raised nationally by the Red Cross for those flooded out of their homes by rampaging waters in 11 states.

The fire company and American Legion are gathering food and clothing by truck in all parts of community for transportation to Harrisburg, badly stricken by the flooding Susquehanna. The first truck load of supplies left here shortly after 1 o'clock Friday. A CCC truck was used by Roy Alexander, vice commander of the Legion post, and Frank Slonaker, service officer, to carry the first installment of this community's practical gifts to Harrisburg. Fire companies in Biglerville, Cashtown, Fairfield and McSherrystown are co-operating in the collection work.

Water Two Feet Over 1889 Record Covers Harrisburg: Harrisburg, March 19 — Susquehanna river, that stream of many floods as the Indians named it, broke all known records today to flood homes of both the rich and poor in the residential districts in the northern section and along the famous river drive. The stream poured over high banks at will.

Plants and factories as well as homes of laborers were under water. The high fence surrounding the framed grave of John Harris barely thrust the tops of its iron pickets above the muddy waters. At noon today the river was well on its way to a thirty-foot stage, more than two feet above the record of 1889 and eleven feet above flood level.

The city steam plant furnishing heat for the center of the city was shut off. The city pumping station on the river island was flooded and it was not known how long the gas supply could be maintained. Bridges across the Susquehanna were closed because of flooded approaches on the west shore. All western and other roads were closed and only two highways were open to the east.

Today's Talk

THE POWER OF ADVERTISING

Advertising today is big business. What will the newspapers, magazines, radio and TV, a business can get quick contact with millions of prospective buyers and clients. The power of advertising is tremendous. Take away all methods of advertising and business would come to a standstill.

I spent many years, after coming out of college, as an advertising man. I was fascinated by it. One man for whom I worked originated what now is common practice. He started the idea of psychology in advertising. Know your client and take your message to him in a manner that will appeal to his needs and he will listen. Why is it that so many publications display the picture of a beautiful woman on their covers? It's because we all like to look at a beautiful woman — men and women alike. That makes us buy such a publication. Never have there been such beautiful designs in book covers. That design, time and again, sells the book. Collectors of first editions pay more if the jacket is left on!

Truthfulness in an advertisement is always essential, and it should make the one appealed to want the product. TV advertising has brought demonstrators right into the home. You see the product. Newspaper advertising has often made news out of the products shown.

Honesty is always the best policy in advertising as well as in everything. Tell your story simply and sincerely and you will not want for buyers. Don't exaggerate. Tell the why, and let the reader decide. Leave plenty of trust behind for the reader to think about. All good advertising should be able to create a desire for the thing advertised.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "Book Collectors." Protected, 1956, by the George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

THE LITTLE "HELLO"

Sweetest word I know,
Just a little girl's "Hello!"
And a little sunny smile
Free from selfishness and guile,
And the twinkle of an eye
To a toiler passing by.

Doesn't know your name or care
What the raincoat that you wear.
What your place or station here
Or the depth of your venter.
But she sees you come and go
And is glad to say: "Hello!"

Says "Hello" and smiles at you
Which is all that she could do
For a king if he should pass
Where she stands upon the grass.
This is all that he would know
Just that glorious "Hello!"

Lord, I thank you for the child
Who just said "Hello" and smiled!
For the children who abide Still unspoiled by sham and pride;
But for them I'd seldom know
Such a genuine "Hello!"

heard a proposal for the establishment of a system of municipal collection and disposal of garbage in the borough at the special meeting of council Wednesday evening.

The plan was proposed by Councilman Horace L. Bender, chairman of the sewer committee. Under the proposal he made residents of the town would have the opportunity of having garbage, ashes and other rubbish collected at regular intervals throughout the year by municipally-paid workmen. A fee would be charged for the service.

OPINIONS VARY ON UPSET VOTE IN MINNESOTA

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several Democrats contended today that Sen. Estes Kefauver's upset Minnesota primary victory was a "repudiation" by Republican voters of President Eisenhower's farm program.

A number of Republicans sharply rejected that suggestion, although some of them acknowledged they are concerned over the effect on voters of the long decline in farm income.

Senators of both parties saw the result as a big boost for Kefauver. Several Democrats renewed pledges of support for Adlai Stevenson, whom he defeated, while conceding Stevenson had suffered a big setback in his campaign to win the Democratic presidential nomination again.

Predicts Sweep
Sen. Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture who has backed major portions of the Eisenhower administration's farm program, said in an interview: "The Minnesota vote, with thousands of Republicans entering the Democratic primary, indicates the Democrats will carry every state in the farm belt, regardless of who is the nominee."

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), who joined with Minnesota's Democratic Gov. Orville Freeman to support Stevenson, said Stevenson's "spirits are high and his determination unwavering," and he added:

"His supporters are equally unwavering."

Humphrey noted that both Stevenson and Kefauver advocated farm price supports at higher levels than the administration does and said the heavy vote in the Democratic primary was a "stunning repudiation of the Eisenhower-Benson farm fiasco." Ezra Taft Benson is secretary of agriculture.

Blames GOP
Terming Stevenson the candidate "most feared" by the Republicans, Humphrey said if Republicans didn't invade the Democratic primary to embarrass him, the only other possible conclusion is that "Republicans flocked to the Democratic banner because they are repudiating their own party."

Sen. Aiken of Vermont, chief Senate backer of the administration's flexible price support program, retorted that "the Minnesota vote indicated an uprising against a group, rather than the farm program."

Admitting he was no longer a "front runner," Stevenson said last night in Chicago he has no intention of withdrawing from the presidential race and will "go to the Democratic convention seeking the nomination."

Frowns On Veep
But he disavowed any interest in the vice presidency—an idea bandied by Kefauver backers in the flush of their lopsided Minnesota victory.

"I am now prepared to work harder than ever...and ask my kind friends everywhere to redouble their efforts too," Stevenson said at a news conference.

Kefauver, holder of 26 of 30 Minnesota delegate votes at the Democrats' August convention, reiterated at Great Falls, Mont., his belief that the primary outcome represented a revolt against the administration's farm program.

The Tennessee senator, moving on to San Francisco today, said he would discuss there the possibility of his entering the Indiana presidential primary, whose filing deadline is a week away.

May Win Four
Stevenson won only the 5th Congressional District Minneapolis poll, with 60 remote precincts still missing, was ahead of Kefauver, 30,559 to 29,689, in the 8th Duluth range country. This put Stevenson into an 870-vote lead there. If his lead holds, he would claim four delegates all told.

The Duluth News-Tribune said the missing precincts were mostly in St. Louis County, which voted preponderantly for Stevenson, and that it did not expect the few missing ballots to affect the end result.

With 3,640 of 3,868 precincts reported, the Democrats had rolled up 419,016, 238,009 of them for Kefauver. The Republicans had 195,621, of which President Eisenhower held 122,482. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) had the 3,139 balance.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Defense attorneys put new testimony into the record today about mistreatment of Negro passengers on segregated city buses which are being boycotted by the Negroes.

The defense was expected to conclude its case during the day, however, in the boycott trial of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., one of 90 Negroes indicted on charges of violating Alabama's antiboycott law.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two resolutions ready for final House action next week would urge the federal government to protect the civil rights of citizens of the United States.

Approved by the House Rules Committee last night were measures calling on Congress to investigate "mob actions that have heaped international disgrace on our nation" and to provide for "lawful and properly controlled" elections in Mississippi.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate Highways Committee today studied suggestions made at a public hearing for distribution of a proposed 30 million dollars a year in state aid for local roads.

The suggestions were made yesterday at an open hearing during which representatives of large communities and representatives of rural districts presented opposing views of the distribution plan.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Court of Appeals refused today to interfere with the firing of General Electric Co. employees who invoked the Fifth Amendment before congressional committees investigating communism.

In ruling against the United Electrical Workers the court avoided passing on whether claiming the Fifth Amendment privilege against possible self-incrimination is "obvious cause" for a private company to fire a worker.

Plan State Income Tax To Pay Korean Service Bonus

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP) — A move was underway today to tie a graduated income tax to a proposal to pay a bonus to Pennsylvania veterans of the Korean War.

House Democratic Leader Reading disclosed he was pushing for a constitutional amendment to authorize:

1. A 150 million dollar bond issue to finance bonus payments—the amounts would have to be decided later—to Pennsylvanians who were in military service between June 25, 1950 and July 21, 1953.

2. A graduated income tax to raise the money to pay the bonus. The levy, however, would be allowed to continue if necessary after the bonus bonds are paid off.

Need Referendum
"That is the plan," he told a newsmen. "We can't pay a bonus without more taxes."

If it is to become law, the plan would have to be approved by both the 1955 and 1957 Legislatures and then by a vote of the people in a statewide referendum.

Reading said Gov. Leader has taken no position on the idea although the governor is on record favoring a graduated income levy.

On another front, legislative leaders on both sides reached a tentative agreement last night fixing April 13 for final adjournment of the Legislature.

Both Chambers Busy
The current session, longest in the history of the commonwealth, entered the closing stages with a flurry of activity in both chambers.

The House met all day and part of last night in disposing of a host of controversial bills.

One of the measures passed in the lower branch called for increased salaries for lawmakers, judges, the governor, lieutenant governor and members of his Cabinet. The vote was 107-65, one more than the required constitutional majority of 106.

Unfreeze Millions In School Building

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader today signed into law a program unfreezing millions of dollars of school construction plans in Pennsylvania.

The new law lifts a $25 million dollar ceiling on state-aided school construction first imposed by the 1953 Legislature. The ceiling jumps 200 million dollars immediately to $225 million dollars and climbs 100 million dollars a year until it reaches $325 million in 1959.

At the same time, the new law will put restrictions on so-called "frills" in the building of new schools.

The cost of a new school—to be eligible for state aid—would be limited to $1,100 for each elementary pupil and $1,700 for each pupil in junior or senior high schools.

but that Chairman Needham (D-Lackawanna) refused.

Veterans' organizations, who successfully backed a 440 million dollar bonus for World War II veterans in 1949 without a tax plan being attached to it, are expected to oppose the new idea.

But some lawmakers were known to be ready to reply that the current Legislature had to put up 67 million dollars to pay for the World War II bonds due in the current biennium. The World War II bonus bonds were sold on the basis of being paid off in 15 years.

National Leaguers Hold Advantage Over American In Spring Baseball Tilts

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

There may or may not be something in Frank Lane's recent observation that "the National League is a stronger league than the American."

The senior circuit has captured the last two World Series—by the Dodgers last year and the Giants in 1954—and five of the last six All-Star Games.

And the National League has the statistics going for them in the grapefruit-cactus competition this spring. In 53 interleague exhibition games, NL teams are out in front 28-24 with one tie.

Lane, who took over as St. Louis Cardinals' general manager this year after a similar tenure with the Chicago White Sox, said, "If the Cards were in the American League they'd finish ahead of the White Sox." Considering that St. Louis wound up in seventh place and the White Sox in third a year ago, that's quite a statement.

Redbirds Doing Well

And Mr. Lane's Redbirds are carrying the National League banner in fine style in the exhibition games. They've beaten American League clubs five times and lost only twice.

But it's been the Pittsburgh Pirates who've done best against American League opponents. They're 5-1. The Dodgers are 5-3, the Chicago Cubs 5-4, the Giants 4-4, Cincinnati 2-4, Philadelphia 1-3 and Milwaukee 1-3 with a tie.

The Boston Red Sox have put together the best American League mark. They've won four, lost one with one deadlock. The other records are: New York Yankees 4-2, the White Sox 3-2, Cleveland 5-4, Washington 2-3, Kansas City 2-4, Baltimore 3-6 and Detroit 1-6.

The Red Sox, however, may have lost their No. 1 slugger, Ted Williams, for the remainder of the exhibition season.

The Boston Post reported Ted pulled a leg muscle in a workout and has been advised by team trainer JJACK Fadden that at Williams' age, 37, the injury won't heal as quickly as in his younger days.

Dodgers, Paintes Win

The National won both inter-league skirmishes yesterday. The champion Dodgers edged the Detroit Tigers 3-2 on Randy Jackson's 10th-inning single and Pittsburgh downed Washington 6-3 behind the effective pitching of Vernon Law and Ronnie Kline.

In games involving National League clubs, Cincinnati parlayed four singles and 11 bases on balls into a 5-3 victory over the Phillies. The Cards pounded Chet Nichols and Dave Jolly for 15 hits in handing Milwaukee its fourth straight setback 9-2. And the Giants broke

SAN FRANCISCO HEAVY CHOICE FOR 2ND TITLE

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—San Francisco's seemingly invincible Dons are one of the most overwhelming choices in NCAA Basketball Tournament history tonight as they open play for their second national championship.

They take the all-time longest major winning streak of 53 games into action against Southern Methodist in the second game. Temple (26-3) faces Big Ten champion Iowa (19-5) in the opener of the four-team show-down.

The winners will meet tomorrow night for the title in Northwestern's new McGraw Hall.

SMU, unbeaten in the Southwest Conference, has won its last 13 starts and has a season record of 25-2. Led by 6-8 junior center Jim Krebs, the Mustangs have the best free throw percentage in the country, .766, and rank ninth in field goal accuracy with .430.

San Francisco, headed by two-time All American center Bill Russell, has topped the nation the last two years on defense and hasn't been beaten since December 1954.

Amaze Coach

"It's an amazing thing about how our club continues to win," said Coach Phil Woolpert said today. "As far as I'm concerned we could get knocked off by the Little Sisters of the Poor, but the fact we haven't cracked yet is a good sign. But we feel we are stepping into a real buzz saw this time."

Temple, the Middle Atlantic winner, may give Iowa a surprise in the opener.

The Owls' coach, Harry Litwak, said his fine outside shooter, 6-2 Hal Reinfeld, is handicapped with a pulled leg muscle and may see only limited service, depending on how he looks in practices.

Bullets To Play Night Game With F. & M. April 27

Gettysburg College's baseball team will engage in its first night game in history Friday, April 27, when Franklin and Marshall will be met at Lancaster.

The game will be played under the lights at Stumpf field, former home of the Lancaster Red Roses of the now defunct Piedmont League.

Arrangements were recently completed for the game, the first night collegiate game ever to be played in this area. F. & M. will also play night games with Elizabethtown, Bucknell and Moravian.

Coach "Hen" Bream's Bullets are scheduled to open their season Friday, March 30, when Colgate will be here. Continued inclement weather has prevented the local outfit from mstaging a single outdoor workout to date.

Battermen have worked out on limited dry spots on the campus. Coach Bream believes several hurlers will be far enough along to work several innings each by the time of the opening game.

FARRELL AND PALMERTON TO DECIDE CROWN

HARRISBURG (AP)—Farrell and Palmerton—newly crowned PIAA scholastic basketball regional champions—meet Saturday in Philadelphia for the state title. Both won lopsided victories last night.

Farrell's Steelers won the western championship by crushing Meadville 83-60 at the Pitt Field House.

Palmerton's Bombers easily outgunned Radnor, 66-46, at Hershey to win the eastern crown.

The Saturday meeting will be the second of the current school-boy campaign for the two schools. They played an exhibition game last December. Farrell won 62-46.

Farrell Is Favorite

That early season game will make Farrell the favorite in the state championship clash at the University of Pennsylvania Palestra. However, Palmerton has gathered strength and play-making ability during the season.

The Bombers, who dropped an early season district game to Allentown 72-56, bounced back to defeat the Canaries for the Dist. 11 championship 68-57.

The difference Saturday could well be Bob Mikvy, 6-4 brother of All-State and All-America Bill Mikvy, who was the high scorer of a four teams in regional action last night.

31 For Mikvy

Mikvy paced his team with 31 points and monopolized the backboards against the taller Radnor club.

Farrell, displaying remarkable balance, had five players in the double figure scoring bracket.

Setting the pace for the Steelers was Mike Canone, with 21 points. Scoring honors of the evening went to Wilbur Jenkins, Meadville's veteran center, who scored 23 points before he fouled out early in the fourth quarter.

FOUR TEAMS IN NIT CONTESTS THIS EVENING

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—The two-week interval between the end of the regular basketball season and the start of the National Invitation tournament virtually makes a new season out of the oldest post-season court extravaganza.

Tonight's semifinal games could mean another fresh start for the four teams involved.

It's Louisville against St. Joseph's of Philadelphia and Dayton against St. Francis of Brooklyn—three seeded teams and one outsider. Only one of the four, St. Joseph's, played a game in two weeks before the tournament opened last Saturday.

Long Layoffs Hurt

The long layoffs were reflected in the shabby performances of the top-rated teams, Dayton and Louisville. On their regular season form, when each won 23 games and lost three, these two should meet in the nationally televised final Saturday afternoon. Off their tournament performances so far, it could be third-seeded St. Joseph's (21-5) against unranked St. Francis (21-2) in the final.

These two, which had to hustle all season, apparently weren't bothered by rustiness as much as the nationally ranked teams. Dayton was third in the final Associated Press ranking poll and Louisville sixth. St. Joseph's didn't end its regular season until March 1, when it lost to Temple. St. Francis, idle for three weeks, has had two tournament games to regain its form.

SENATE PASSES FLOOD AID BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—Warren and Danville would qualify for state aid under Pennsylvania's special hurricane disaster and flood law through a bill carrying Senate committee approval.

The Senate Highways Committee yesterday recommended the allocation of funds collected under the special one cent extra gasoline tax for highway and bridge repairs occurring since last August.

The extra cent was inaugurated originally to care for road and bridge damage suffered in last summer's hurricanes and floods, mainly in northeastern Pennsylvania.

Up To March 1956

The new bill, however, would make the funds available for disaster up to March of this year to cover flood damages in Warren two weeks ago and in Danville last fall.

Another bill clearing the way for use of part of a 12 million dollar disaster fund for general flood relief at Warren and Danville also is before the Assembly.

Likewise intended originally for only last August's flood situation, allowance was first made earmarking some money for Danville and just recently for Warren.

The measure is before the House for agreement on the amendment including use of the money for Warren.

LITTLE LEAGUE CONGRESS IN SESSION TODAY

CHICAGO (AP)—President Peter J. McGovern today called for strong leadership and direction of Little League baseball in a program which now embraces more than a million youngsters in the U.S. and Canada.

McGovern, in a prepared address, keynoted the first annual National Congress of Little League which opened a three-day session.

"Proper leadership and guidance will be one of the greatest forces for development of the youth of America," he said. "In the realization of the national import of a program that encompasses up to 75,000 adults and a million youngsters bound together along lines of practical idealism, we must urge you to keep the basic pattern that Little League represents."

200 Delegates There

"You must secure it, guard it, protect it and support it because it is your own program."

More than 200 delegates, representing 4,000 Little Leagues, heard McGovern, of Williamsport, Pa., outline a five-point plan as the Congress' objective. This embodied improved leadership, high standards of teamwork, better techniques in league operation, clarity of aims and the function and status of Little League.

Court battles about league operations last fall between Carl Stolz, founder of Little League, and officials of Little League Baseball Inc., presumably brought about the need of a convention.

although sponsors report that such a congress long had been planned.

Pittsburgh and Providence go into their decisive American Hockey League game at Providence tonight with the Hornets holding a one-point margin over the Reds.

The Hornets displaced Providence as the league leaders last night with a 4-3 victory over last place Springfield for their 11th triumph in 12 games with the Indians.

A victory tonight for Pittsburgh would just about decide the regular season title race, which ends Sunday night. After tonight's game each has two games to play.

Third Place Battle

Meanwhile, the Cleveland Barons and Buffalo Bisons head into their final two games all-square in a battle for third place. They meet head-on in Buffalo Saturday night.

The Bisons gained a tie with the Barons last night by edging Cleveland 3-2.

Jack Caffrey's goal at 17:30 of the final period gave the Hornets their triumph after Springfield had tied the score on goals by Maurice Collins and Walt Atanas.

Buffalo scored its winning goal at 8:16 of the third period when Pete Babando deflected a drive by Frank Sullivan into the net. Jack McIntyre came through with two more goals for the Bisons.

DECREASE IN SALES

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Total sales of the Glen Alden Corp. fell from 73½ million dollars in 1954 to $58,700,000 in 1955, the company reported yesterday. Net income, after depreciation and depletion allowances, dropped from $31,843 or 11 cents per share to $154,249 or eight cents a share.

President Francis O. Case said the decline in sales was caused primarily by the disposal of the company's anthracite retailing subsidiaries. Profit from the sale of these subsidiaries was listed under surplus rather than earnings, reducing the earnings figure by $245,750.

Akins needed a last-round flurry for a close but unanimous decision over smart Hector Constance of Trinidad here last night in a 10-round.

It wasn't a sensational victory and the crowd booed the decision although Akins is a St. Louis boy. But it kept him in the running for a bout with Saxton, who is looking around for opponents before he gives Carmen Basillo a return crack at the title.

Akins had to win the last round to take the fight. Judges Fred Connell and Howard Hess and Referee Benny Kessler scored it 51-49, Akins. The Associated Press scored it 50-50.

National Leaguers Hold Advantage Over American In Spring Baseball Tilts

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

There may or may not be something in Frank Lane's recent observation that "the National League is a stronger league than the American."

The senior circuit has captured the last two World Series—by the Dodgers last year and the Giants in 1954—and five of the last six All-Star Games.

And the National League has the statistics going for them in the grapefruit-cactus competition this spring. In 53 interleague exhibition games, NL teams are out in front 28-24 with one tie.

Lane, who took over as St. Louis Cards' general manager this year after a similar tenure with the Chicago White Sox, said, "If the Cards were in the American League they'd finish ahead of the White Sox." Considering that St. Louis wound up in seventh place and the White Sox in third a year ago, that's quite a statement.

Redbirds Doing Well

And Mr. Lane's Redbirds are carrying the National League banner in fine style in the exhibition games. They've beaten American League clubs five times and lost only twice.

But it's been the Pittsburgh Pirates who've done best against American League opponents. They're 5-1. The Dodgers are 5-3, the Chicago Cubs 5-4, the Giants 4-4, Cincinnati 2-4, Philadelphia 1-3 and Milwaukee 1-3 with a tie.

The Boston Red Sox have put together the best American League mark. They've won four, lost one with one deadlock. The other records are: New York Yankees 4-2, the White Sox 3-2, Cleveland 5-4, Washington 2-3, Kansas City 2-4, Baltimore 3-6 and Detroit 1-6.

The Red Sox, however, may have lost their No. 1 slugger, Ted Williams, for the remainder of the exhibition season.

The Boston Post reported Ted pulled a leg muscle in a workout and has been advised by team trainer J. Jack Fadden that at Williams' age, 37, the injury won't heal as quickly as in his younger days.

Dodgers, Paintes Win

The National won both interleague skirmishes yesterday. The champion Dodgers edged the Detroit Tigers 3-2 on Randy Jackson's 10th-inning single and Pittsburgh downed Washington 6-3 behind the effective pitching of Vernon Law and Ronnie Kline. In games involving National League clubs, Cincinnati parlayed four singles and 11 bases on balls into a 5-3 victory over the Phillies. The Cards pounded Chet Nichols and Dave Jolly for 15 hits in handing Milwaukee its fourth straight setback 9-2. And the Giants broke loose for 14 hits, including homers by Hank Thompson, pitcher Johnny Antonelli and George Wilson, to nip the Cubs 11-10.

In the American, Larry Doby connected for a 400-foot homer as the White Sox blanked the Red Sox 6-0. Bobby Avila, playing his second game of the spring, drove in four runs with two triples and a single to lead Cleveland to an 11-4 victory over Baltimore. And Mickey Mantle continued his prolific hitting with a homer and a triple as the Yankees tripped Kansas City 9-5.

Defeat Lifting Of Liquor Quota System

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposal to lift the quota system in issuing liquor licenses to clubs was defeated in the House last night 114-95. Several supporters changed their votes from "yes" to "no" in a move to permit future reconsideration.

Another bill voted down 84-80 would have authorized issuance of special farm permits to children under 12 working on farms.

SAN FRANCISCO HEAVY CHOICE FOR 2ND TITLE

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—San Francisco's seemingly invincible Dons are one of the most overwhelming choices in NCAA Basketball Tournament history tonight as they open play for their second national championship.

They take the all-time longest major winning streak of 53 games into action against Southern Methodist in the second game. Temple (26-3) faces Big Ten champion Iowa (19-5) in the opener of the four-team show-down.

The winners will meet tomorrow night for the title in Northwestern's new McGraw Hall.

SMU, unbeaten in the Southwest Conference, has won its last 19 starts and has a season record of 25-2. Led by 6-8 junior center Jim Krebs, the Mustangs have the best free throw percentage in the country, .766, and rank ninth in field goal accuracy with .430.

San Francisco, headed by two-time All America center Bill Russell, has topped the nation the last two years on defense and hasn't been beaten since December 1954.

Amazing Coach

"It's an amazing thing about how our club continues to win," coach Phil Woolpert said today. "As far as I'm concerned we could get knocked off by the Little Sisters of the Poor, but the fact we haven't cracked yet is a good sign. But we feel we are stepping into a real buzz saw this time."

Temple, the Middle Atlantic winner, may give Iowa a surprising battle in the opener.

The Owls' coach, Harry Litwak, said his line outside shooter, 6-2 Hal Reinfield, is handicapped with a pulled leg muscle and may see only limited service, depending on how he looks in practices.

Bullets To Play Night Game With F. & M. April 27

Gettysburg College's baseball team will engage in its first night game in history Friday, April 27, when Franklin and Marshall will be met at Lancaster.

The game will be played under the lights at Stumpf field, former home of the Lancaster Red Roses of the now defunct Piedmont League.

Arrangements were recently completed for the game, the first night collegiate game ever to be played in this area. F. and M. will also play night games with Elizabethtown, Bucknell and Moravian.

Coach "Hen" Bream's Bullets are scheduled to open their season Friday, March 30, when Colgate will be here. Continued inclement weather has prevented the local outfit from making a single outdoor workout to date.

Batteries have worked out on limited dry spots on the campus. Coach Bream believes several hurlers will be far enough along to work several innings each by the time of the opening game.

FOUR TEAMS IN NIT CONTESTS THIS EVENING

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—The two-week interval between the end of the regular basketball season and the start of the National Invitation tournament virtually makes a new season out of the oldest post season court extravaganza.

Tonight's semifinal games could mean another fresh start for the four teams involved.

Long Layoffs Hurt

The long layoffs were reflected in the shabby performances of the top-rated teams, Dayton and Louisville. On their regular season form, when each won 23 games and lost three, these two should meet in the nationally televised final Saturday afternoon. Off their tournament performances so far, it could be third-seeded St. Joseph's (21-5) against unranked St. Francis (21-2) in the final.

These two, which had to hustle all season, apparently weren't bothered by rustiness as much as the nationally ranked teams. Dayton was third in the final Associated Press ranking poll and Louisville sixth. St. Joseph's didn't end its regular season until March 1, when it lost to Temple. St. Francis, idle for three weeks, has had two tournament games to regain its form.

Put the shelled nuts in a slow (250 to 275 degrees) oven for about 20 minutes; stir a few times. As the nuts expand slightly in the heating, the skins split and may be removed by rubbing the nuts briskly between the fingers.

Want a quick-to-prepare vegetable for a jettison supper? Defrost a package of winter-type squash and add salt, pepper, brown sugar and melted butter to taste. Turn into a small shallow baking dish and sprinkle with chopped filberts and drizzle with more melted butter. Bake in a moderate oven until thoroughly hot.

Method: Make up pastry according to package directions; roll out on large rimless cookie sheet into a rectangle about 10 by 14 inches and 1/8 inch thick. ## SHARON UNION REFUSING TO GO TO WORK

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 6,500-member union local has refused to return to work at the Westinghouse Electric Corp. plant in nearby Sharon, bringing from the company a charge that ended the 156-day nationwide strike against Westinghouse.

Local 617 of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) voted last night not to return to work pending a discussion of the status of nine Sharon employees suspended by the company for alleged picket line violence.

The local's action was taken after the company announced it planned to call some 4,500 members back to the Sharon transformer plant today.

Most of the 44,000 IUE members were returning to work gradually in 29 other plants under terms of the five-year contract agreed to Monday night.

The company planned to meet today with representatives of the independent United Electrical Workers, representing 10,500 Westinghouse employees at 10 other plants still struck. It was hoped the smaller union would agree to a pact similar to that accepted by the IUE.

The settlement with the IUE included a provision dealing with 36 workers who had been fired for alleged picket line violence during the strike.

Suspension Provided

The national agreement provided the 36 men were to be placed on indefinite suspension pending disposition of their cases. It called for discussion of each case at the plant level. If the union wasn't satisfied, it could take the cases to arbitration.

Henry Gunesch, business agent of Local 617, told his members the company would discuss only four of the nine cases yesterday. He said these four had been resolved with "definite suspensions" and that discussions of the five remaining cases would be held today.

Although Gunesch would not say what the "definite suspensions" were, a source close to both union and management said a six-week suspension had been agreed upon.

There was no comment from the union's international officers, headed by James B. Carey. But Westinghouse declared:

"This action by the Sharon local is a direct violation of the strike settling agreement. It clearly is an obvious move to bring pressure on our Sharon management concerning the men who were indefinitely suspended."

Pete Pihos To Coach National Ag College

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Pete Pihos, who retired last season after nine years as an end with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League, will be head coach at the National Agricultural College next season. College President James Work said yesterday Pihos also would teach business law at the college. Pihos served last season as advisory coach. He succeeds Charlie Keyes, also head coach in basketball and baseball.

Keyes said he did not know what his future at the school would be. His Aggie teams had a winning record during his five years as grid coach and last season had a 5-3 mark. He came here from Trenton (NJ) State Teachers College.

Sue Treasurer In Fund Shortage

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Joseph J. Soboleski, treasurer of the Minersville Good Will Community Ambulance Fund, has been named defendant in a suit to recover an alleged shortage of $8,449 in his accounts.

The suit, filed in Schuylkill named as a defendant the Royal Indemnity Co., a New York bonding firm.

The suit states that Soboleski collected $71,107.23 between Feb. 1, 1951 and Dec. 31, 1953 but deposited only $67,739.23. The bill of complaint further states Soboleski cashed 16 checks totaling $5,081.17 for which he failed to account and that the cancelled checks were destroyed.

Method: Make up pastry according to package directions; roll out on large rimless cookie sheet into a rectangle about 10 by 14 inches and 1/8 inch thick. ## Plan Honor For Conservationist

HARRISBURG (AP)—A resolution honoring the late Dr. John Trimble Rothrock, pioneer state conservationist, is ready for a House vote next week after gaining committee approval.

As approved by the House Rules Committee last night, the resolution would commend Milford County for plans to pay special honor to Dr. Rothrock on April 9, the 117th anniversary of his birth.

A native of McVeytown, Milford County, Dr. Rothrock was Pennsylvania's first commissioner of forestry and head of the old Department of Forestry. He is known as the father of the state park

FINAL ACTION ON FARM BILL AFTER EASTER

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Cooley (D-NC) said today a compromise farm bill may be ready for final action shortly after Congress returns from its Easter recess April 9.

Cooley, as chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, will head House conferees who will meet with representatives of the Senate in an effort to compromise vastly different farm bills.

"We're not going to stall," Cooley told newsmen. "I'm going to try to get the conferees to work over the recess. We're going to try our best to compromise our differences with the Senate and get out a good bill."

Hints At Veto

In a broad hint that he might veto a measure which resembled that passed Monday night by the Senate, President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday it is unworkable and not a good bill.

He voiced hope that the Senate House conferees "may write a good bill, and one which can really be helpful to the farmer."

That seemed to be a slim hope.

Conferees are not free to start from scratch. Their assignment is to recommend compromises or the scrapping of provisions which are in disagreement between the two branches.

The administration opposes the only two major provisions of the bill the House passed last year—a return to rigid price supports on five basic crops and a hike in the minimum support level for dairy products.

The Senate bill contains authority for the administration's soil bank, designed to take land out of production of crops now in surplus, but the Senate added features of its own. Other provisions of the Senate measure are a similar boost in dairy price supports, two-price support programs for wheat and rice, surplus set-asides and other proposals the administration opposed.

On a related issue, the House voted 215-195 yesterday to reject the recommendation of Cooley's committee and approved a Senate bill calling for a two-year, 160-million-dollar school with program.

TERRIBLE IVAN, CHIEF RED COP, CHECKS LONDON

LONDON (AP)—Ivan A. Serov, the Soviet police chief, flew into London today to double check security plans for the Khrushchev-Bulgarian visit.

A howl of protest in the British press and elsewhere preceded the arrival of the hard-eyed successor to the executed Lavrenty P. Beria.

Serov showed up in a Soviet jet airliner whose details have not been disclosed to the West.

The British press has dubbed Serov "Ivan the Terrible." He has been pictured as responsible for mass murders and deportations throughout Eastern Europe in World War II.

"Serov the Thug is here today," blazoned the Conservative Daily Mail.

Consult Scotland Yard

The Liberal Manchester Guardian termed the tight-lipped policeman, "the odious Gen. Ivan Serov," and the Daily Sketch called him "the most sinister man in Russia."

The Foreign Office announced Serov and a party of his top lieutenants were flying here to consult with Scotland Yard on plans to guard Prime Minister Bulganin and party chief Nikita Khrushchev during their 10-day visit beginning April 18.

Insurance Firms Pay Million Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—Insurance companies have paid a million dollars to the Chase Manhattan Bank to make up for its misplaced million-dollar U. S. Treasury note.

A Chase Manhattan official said yesterday the bank had entered a claim for the loss and that 18 insurance companies, acting as surety, came up with the money.

The bank spokesman said, "the insurance companies eventually can get back their money from the government." He did not elaborate.

The Treasury note was first missed March 6. The spokesman said a search through many millions of sheets of paper will continue until the note—which is theoretically negotiable—is found.

to guard Prime Minister Bulganin and party chief Nikita Khrushchev during their 10-day visit beginning April 18.

"The choice was made by the Soviet government who were no doubt aware of the kind of reaction which might be expected to this selection," a Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen a few minutes after Serov's plane landed.

Records indicate that buckwheat was not introduced into Europe until the 10th century.

News Briefs

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Department of Welfare can join with local groups for an investigation of the causes and cures for juvenile delinquency under a new state law today.

Gov. Leader Tuesday signed a measure making state funds and technical assistance available to counties for juveniles committed to institutions by the House.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 30 million dollar boost in the borrowing capacity of the General State Authority is favored by 12 senators for improvements at state teachers colleges.

Under the proposal the total borrowing capacity of the GSA—the commonwealth's borrow-and-build agency—would jump to 360 millions. Most of the sponsors of Tuesday's bill have state teachers college within their districts.

COLD TIP

An old-fashioned remedy still in high favor for treatment of colds consists of baking soda and lemon. The basic formula is a half glass of water, the juice of one fresh lemon and a half-teaspoon of soda added just before serving, so it fizzes. To make it palatable for children, a teaspoon of sugar may be added.

Seek Tax Slash On Aviation Fuel

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two proposals aimed at reducing the state tax on all types of aviation fuel by a 4½ cents were ready for Senate action today following overwhelming House approval.

The companion measures, to cut the tax from 1½ cents, were passed last night 188-2 and 187-3. Reps. Reibman (D-Northampton), Helm (R-Armstrong) and Ewing (R-Alegheny) voted no.

Backed by the State Aeronautics Board, the bills would include kerosene, used as jet fuel, in the tax.

House Democratic leader Readinger said official estimates place the loss to the state through the reduction at $100,000 annually.

He added, however, that the lower tax is expected to result in increased sales after the first year. "Further increases in the tax are planned if sales increase sufficiently."

The aeronautics board estimates that the yield from the tax in 1955 was $520,000 and that with the sale of 30 million gallons in 1956, the yield would be $450,000.

JUST CHECKING!

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The elderly woman stepped up to Frank Eledge, guard at the Marine bank here, and stared at him intently for several moments.

The puzzled bank guard became flustered and wondered what it was all about.

Suddenly the woman said: "Say something. Go ahead, say something."

"What do you want me to say?" the guard asked.

HOUSE APPROVES PAY HIKE; SENT FOR SENATE NOD

HARRISBURG (AP)—It was up to the Republican-controlled Senate today to decide whether Pennsylvania's three branches of government should get House-approved pay increases averaging over 2 million dollars yearly.

The House voted last night to grant the increases by the narrow margin of 107-64 but only after eight members changed their votes to "yes" upon the urging of the Democratic leadership. It takes 106 votes to pass a bill in the lower chamber.

As passed by the House and sent to the Senate for agreement on amendments inserted by the House Appropriations Committee, the measure would:

1. Grant the next governor a $10,000 pay boost to $35,000.
2. Give members of the next General Assembly a total compensation for their two-year terms of $15,000. At present they receive $9,000 for that period. Both figures include $3,000 for office expenses.
3. Grant an immediate $5,000 increase to the state's 195 judges. 4. Jump the pay of the lieutenant governor and 20 department heads from $15,000 to $20,000.

Stop Attempt Fails
The vote cut across party lines after an hour's debate during which two Republicans tried vainly to prevent the final ballot.

Rep. Goldstein (Allegheny) and Agnew (Allegheny) tried to amend the bill so lawmakers would receive only $12,000 compensation every two years. Their amendment was rejected on a voice vote.

Goldstein said a "salary increase for lawmakers in less than two years of almost 250 per cent is not warranted in view of the tight budget conditions of today."

Says Not Justified
Agnew commented that "we must be honest with ourselves and fair to the people. We are part-time legislators and $15,000 is a full-time salary. I don't see how it can be justified."

List Raises
Rep. Polen (D-Washington), chairman of the Appropriations Committee, estimated the cost of the proposed raises for lawmakers at 1½ million dollars during odd numbered years and half that amount during even numbered years.

The judges' increase, he added, would amount to about one million dollars annually.

Rep. Bazin (D-Phila.) moved to have the proposal returned to committee and asked how the state will pay for the increase. This move was also rejected on a voice vote.

"I'm not allergic to pay increases, but I sure am allergic to voting for another tax," he declared.

Changing their votes from negative to affirmative to insure passage were:

Reps. Stroup (R-Bedford), Mikula (R-Luzerne), Murphy (R-Delaware), O'Neill (D-Clearfield), Rowanek (D-Cambria), Lopresti (D-Cambria), Wallace (D-Luzerne) and Whiteknigh (D-Montour).

Revise Pension System
At the same time, the House voted 161-6 to revise the pension system for judges. Judges would be able to retire at up to 80 per cent of their highest pay under the bill also returned to the Senate for agreement on amendments.

The pension plan would provide benefits without contributions. It would make any judge reaching 65 after a full elective term or 10 years in office eligible for a pension for the rest of his life equal to 2½ per cent of his total salary for the years he served.

Under that provision a Common Pleas judge reaching 65 after 10 years service with a salary of $20,000 yearly could retire on a $5,000-a-year pension.

MIDDIE BOSS—Rear Adm. William R. Smedberg 3rd, above, has been named successor to Rear Adm. Walter F. Boone as superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy.

ASK LIFTING OF SUSPENSION

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—The president of Dickinson College said today some faculty members have requested that a suspension imposed on one of the school's economics professor be lifted.

"The faculty last night adopted a resolution urging that Dr. Laurence R. Lavalley be allowed to return to his teaching duties at the school," said Dr. William W. Edel. Lavalley was suspended last Tuesday pending a hearing before the full board of trustees and its legal group.

Dr. Edel said today the suspension still was in effect. He declined comment on what action he will take on the resolution.

The suspension came after Lavalley invoked the 5th Amendment last month while testifying before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Refused To Answer
He refused to answer some questions on the grounds his answers might tend to incriminate him.

"The faculty members in their resolution for Lavalley's reinstatement said he 'never gave any indication of Communist tendencies while teaching at the college' and they felt his teaching was good," Dr. Edel said.

Lavalley invoked the 5th Amendment while being questioned on what the committee said were reports of his Communist activities while working for the government several years ago.

Dr. Edel told a reporter that "the adoption of the resolution was by no means unanimous." There are some 70 members on the school faculty.

SHIRER ELECTED
NEW YORK (AP)—William A. Shirer has been elected president of the Authors Guild. Others chosen at the annual meeting are John Brick, vice president, and Irmen-gard Eberle Koehler, secretary. New members of the council are Cleveland Amory, Richard Bissell, Hildegarde Dolson, Michael Drury, John Hersey, Elizabeth Janeway, Robert J. Landry and Merle Miller.

COURTESY FIRM GROSSES 130 G'S FOR SERVICES

By MARGARET KERNODLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—"We do anything people want done that they cannot or don't want to do themselves," says Jane Marillee, whose unique eight-year-old business grossed $130,000 last year.

Fired in an economy wave, Jane figured she had enough money to pay office, phone and stationery bills for six months "and held my breath a good year. "It started April 1 and that year grossed only $2,486.21," she told me. Now she employs 25 girls, chosen from colleges throughout the country after screening for enthusiasm, integrity, eye-appeal and telephone personality plus ability to make accurate judgment — "Girls with college drama background are excellent because they don't have first fright."

Courtesy Associates has two kinds of services, Jane explained: "First, the girls maintain Washington headquarters for firms interested in doing business with federal agencies — a fire equipment company in Wisconsin, for instance.

"Second is an answering service.

Each girl handles phone calls as an employee of the firm she represents so that people with whom she is talking will think she's selling from the firm's own office when she's on the phone."

Courtesy Associates puts on two big annual dinners a year — the Wright Day dinner for about 2,000 people, honoring Orville and Wilbur Wright, and the Armed Forces Day dinner. It also runs conventions.

The girls must know something about a tremendous number of businesses and professions. If one of the more than 700 clients wants to know if the insurance on his old car carries through on his new car, the girl must be able to say it does. Or a girl must know that to "cooperate" in the real estate business means two firms will split a commission on a sale.

Casualties Develop
"They're a terrific gang," Jane bubbles. "The chief casualty is marriage or a husband being transferred away from Washington."

The Associates have huge space in an office building around the corner from the White House. There are a lounge and a great big switchboard room which Jane and her girls are about to redecorate so each of 11 girls handling 75 clients by phone will have a desk of her own. "We're going to give that room glamor if we have to put polka dots on the ceiling," says Jane.

Nine Adams County youths have joined the local reserve unit at the Gettysburg Army Reserve Center under the new reserve program.

The oath of enlistment was administered by 1st Lt. Lester C. Kiehl, commander, Company "A," 313th Infantry Regiment, local reserve unit for Adams County, to: Robert Bennett, 17, son of Rev. and Mrs. Golden Bennett, Fayetteville R. 2; Robert Wetzel, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Easter Sunday masses will begin at 7:30 and 10 a.m. as usual, with the second mass a high mass.

Under the program, the youths will serve for a period of eight years with six months active duty and the remainder of the time attending drills once a week with the local reserve unit. The active duty time will not be served until they graduate from high school.

Have Vacancies
The Adams County reservists were enrolled under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

The program is designed to give youths an opportunity to meet their obligation of military service with the least interference to their personal lives and plans for an education or starting on a career.

Youths who wait to be drafted have to serve two years and then have a period of three years participating in the reserves.

M/Sgt. Leister, recruiting sergeant for the local reserve unit, said there are more vacancies in the local unit for young men in this age group. Further information is available at the U. S. Army Reserve Center, American Legion Building, Gettysburg.

GETS REPAIR CONTRACT

HARRISBURG (AP)—A $215,757 contract was awarded by the State Highways Department yesterday to the High Welding Co., Lancaster, for repairs to a steel truss bridge carrying Rt. 14 over the Susquehanna River at Northumberland.

RECEIVES LOW-BID

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority received an unofficial low bid yesterday of $7,446 from Dixon Co., Inc., Williamsport, for refrigerator installation at Laurelton State Village, Union County.

"MARTY" GIVEN
OSCAR AWARD;
BORGNIKE WINS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"Marty," the movie originally made as a tax loss to offset big grosses of two Burt Lancaster Westerns, emerged today as the Oscar-winning picture. It also won the top male acting Academy Award last night for Ernest Borgnine, an actor who only earned $2,300 in his profession three years ago. He is worth at least $150,000 a picture with Oscar behind him.

Anna Magnani, the fiery Italian, now in Rome, won the top feminine Oscar for her performance in "The Rose Tattoo."

Roused from sleep to be given the news, she shouted: "It's great... I feel just as if I'd built the Colosseum—it's all an earthquake inside."

Lemmon And Jo Van Fleet

The supporting actor award went to Jack Lemmon, the comic Ens. Pulver of "Mister Roberts." Jo Van Fleet, the madam mother of James Dean in "East of Eden," was named the best supporting actress.

Besides earning best picture and best actor awards, "Marty" also won an Oscar for the best screen play for playwright Paddy Chayefsky. He wrote the tender story of a lonely butcher first as a television play.

Delbert Mann, who directed "Marty" on TV and then for his movie debut, won the best direction award.

"Marty" was produced by the team of Harold Hecht and screen star Burt Lancaster.

Lancaster gave much of the credit for "Marty's" success to newspaper advertising. He told a reporter that the film cost only $343,000 to make but that half a million dollars was spent on an advertising campaign, much of it in newspapers seen by Academy voters.

Hollywood thought the two partners were slightly draft when they announced last year that they intended to make a movie about a lonely butcher and a wallflower schoolteacher—with no big star names in the cast.

At the time Lancaster said, "We're making it because it's something we want to make."

He added that even if the picture didn't earn a cent it would be profitable as a tax loss against big grosses of "Vera Cruz" and "Apache," putting the producers in a lower tax bracket.

But "Marty" turned out to be a sleeper that won the Cannes Film Festival and New York Film Critics awards before getting last night's Oscar.

As for financial returns on the expected tax loss, Lancaster disclosed:

"So far the picture has grossed two million dollars and hasn't been put in general release yet."

Some Disappointment
A happy Borgnine said after receiving his Oscar:

"I felt wonderful, naturally, but I hadn't let my hopes get too high. I figured I didn't start out with anything in this town, so if I lost I still was way ahead of the game."

"Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing" was named the best song of the year.

Some disappointment was voiced by stars because no special award was given the late James Dean. An Academy official said it was decided to let Dean's performance stand on its merits with the other nominees for top acting.

Urges Deepening Of Upper Delaware

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Levittown, Pa., oil company executive and a Pennsylvania congressman yesterday urged a House appropriations subcommittee to appropriate six million dollars to deepen the upper Delaware River channel.

William C. Henwood, vice president of Meenan Oil Co., and Rep. King (R-Pa.) appeared before the group considering Army civil functions money requests for the year starting July 1. The six million dollars, recommended in would begin work on the project to deepen the Delaware's channel to 35 feet between Philadelphia and Trenton.

Henwood said deepening of the channel would open the possibility within the next five years of bringing T-2 tankers directly to their company's dockage at Tullytown, Pa., resulting in estimated annual savings of $86,250.

READING, Pa. (AP)—Race Director Russ Moyer announced yesterday that the opening of the East's big car competition at the Reading Fairgrounds has been postponed until April 8. He said the recent snowstorm had put hip deep drifts on the track and had also covered the grandstand and parking lots.

FINAL ACTION ON FARM BILL AFTER EASTER

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Cooley (D-NC) said today a compromise farm bill may be ready for final action shortly after Congress returns from its Easter recess April 9.

Cooley, as chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, will head House conferees who will meet with representatives of the Senate in an effort to compromise vastly different farm bills.

"We're not going to stall," Cooley told newsmen. "I'm going to try to get the conferees to work over the recess. We're going to try our best to compromise our differences with the Senate and get out a good bill."

Hints At Veto

In a broad hint that he might veto a measure which resembled that passed Monday night by the Senate, President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday it is unworkable and not a good bill.

He voiced hope that the Senate-House conferees "may write a good bill, and one which can really be helpful to the farmer."

That seemed to be a slim hope.

Conferees are not free to start from scratch. Their assignment is to recommend compromises or the scrapping of provisions which are in disagreement between the two branches.

The administration opposes the only two major provisions of the bill the House passed last year—a return to rigid price supports on five basic crops and a hike in the minimum support level for dairy products.

The Senate bill contains authority for the administration's soil bank, designed to take land out of production of crops now in surplus, but the Senate added features of its own. Other provisions of the Senate measure are a similar boost in dairy price supports, two-price support programs for and rice, surplus set-asides and other proposals the administration opposed.

On a related issue, the House voted 215-195 yesterday to reject the recommendation of Cooley's committee and approved a Senate bill calling for a two-year, 160-million-dollar school with program.

TERRIBLE IVAN, CHIEF RED COP, CHECKS LONDON

LONDON (AP)—Ivan A. Serov, the Soviet police chief, flew into London today to double check security plans for the Khrushchev-Bulgarian visit.

A howl of protest in the British press and elsewhere preceded the arrival of the hard-eyed successor to the executed Lavrenty P. Beria.

Serov showed up in a Soviet jet airliner whose details have not been disclosed to the West.

The British press has dubbed Serov "Ivan the Terrible." He has been pictured as responsible for mass murders and deportations throughout Eastern Europe in World War II.

"Serov the Thug is here today," blazoned the Conservative Daily Mail.

Consult Scotland Yard

The Liberal Manchester Guardian termed the tight-lipped policeman, "the odious Gen. Ivan Serov" and the Daily Sketch called him "the most sinister man in Russia."

The Foreign Office announced Serov and a party of his top lieutenants were flying here to consult with Scotland Yard on plans to guard Prime Minister Bulganin and party chief Nikita Khrushchev during their 10-day visit beginning April 18.

"The choice was made by the Soviet government who were no doubt aware of the kind of reaction which might be expected to this selection," a Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen a few minutes after Serov's plane landed.

Records indicate that buckwheat was not introduced into Europe until the 10th century.

Insurance Firms Pay Million Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—Insurance companies have paid a million dollars to the Chase Manhattan Bank to make up for its misplaced million-dollar U. S. Treasury note.

A Chase Manhattan official said yesterday the bank had entered a claim for the loss and that 18 insurance companies, acting as surety, came up with the money.

The bank spokesman said, "the insurance companies eventually can get back their money from the government." He did not elaborate.

The Treasury note was first missed March 6. The spokesman said a search through many millions of sheets of paper will continue until the note—which is theoretically negotiable—is found.

News Briefs

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Department of Welfare can join with local groups for an investigation of the causes and cures for juvenile delinquency under a new state law today.

Gov. Leader Tuesday signed a measure making state funds and technical assistance available to counties for juveniles committed to institutions by the House.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 30 million dollar boost in the borrowing capacity of the General State Authority is favored by 12 senators for improvements at state teachers colleges.

Under the proposal the total borrowing capacity of the GSA—the commonwealth's borrow-and-build agency—would jump to 360 millions. Most of the sponsors of Tuesday's bill have state teachers college within their districts.

COLD TIP

An old-fashioned remedy still in high favor for treatment of colds consists of baking soda and lemon. The basic formula is a half glass of water, the juice of one fresh lemon and a half-teaspoon of soda added just before serving, so it fizzes. To make it palatable for children, a teaspoon of sugar may be added.

Seek Tax Slash On Aviation Fuel

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two proposals aimed at reducing the state tax on all types of aviation fuel by a 4½ cents were ready for Senate action today following overwhelming House approval.

The companion measures, to cut the tax from 1½ to 1½ cents, were passed last night 188-2 and 187-3. Reps. Reilman (D-Northampton), Helm (R-Armstrong) and Ewing (R-Alegheny) voted no.

Backed by the State Aeronautics Board, the bills would include kerosene, used as jet fuel, in the tax.

House Democratic leader Reading said officials estimates place the loss to the state through the reduction at $100,000 annually.

He added, however, that the lower tax is expected to result in increased sales after the first year. "Further increases in the tax are planned if sales increase sufficiently."

The aeronautics board estimates that the yield from the tax in 1955 was $520,000 and that with the sale of 30 million gallons in 1956, the yield would be $450,000.

JUST CHECKING!

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The elderly woman stepped up to Frank Ell-edge, guard at the Marine bank here, and stared at him intently for several moments.

The puzzled bank guard became flustered and wondered what it was all about.

Suddenly the woman said: "Say a mile in playing one side of a something. Go ahead, say some-thing."

"What do you want me to say?" the guard asked.

"Anything. I've just paid $150 for a new hearing aid and I'm trying it out."

A phonograph needle travels half a mile in playing one side of a 12-inch phonograph record.

ANALYST SIZES UP KEFAUVER, A. STEVENSON

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower didn't really begin his all-out, slam-bang campaign for election in 1952 until after the Scripps-Howard newspapers complained he was newspaper "like a dry creek."

Perhaps Adlai Stevenson will be affected the same way—if that's possible for him—by the clubbing he just took from Sen. Estes Kefauver in the presidential primary in Minnesota.

After reflecting on this sad news, Stevenson said he will now "work harder" for the Democratic nomination. This may have been an acknowledgment he thought he had the Minnesota vote in his pocket and was just freezing in his campaign there.

No Balls Of Fire
He's been no ball of fire so far. Perhaps it isn't in his nature to be. The slow-talking Kefauver has no edge on him in that department: he doesn't give off sparks either.

Up to now Stevenson has looked like a rerun of himself in 1952: dignified, scholarly and mild, even milder than in 1952 when Eisenhower beat him. Kefauver has a touch of the home town boy about him, even homespun.

Whether these personality differences had any significance in the Minnesota voting cannot be said now.

Tactics Much Alike
Nor can it be said the difference in their tactics was significant. Where there was almost an elegance about Stevenson, whisking around Minnesota in search of votes, the more casual Kefauver not only loomed around shaking hands but looking for hands to shake.

It is just as possible Stevenson has worn out his welcome as a presidential candidate and voters are getting tired of his genteel approach to domestic and world issues.

Both men on Nov. 19 last year came out for "moderation" in this year's presidential campaign and they've stuck to that pretty much ever since, with Stevenson even more "moderate" than Kefauver.

Much Like Twins
On most subjects they talked like twins against the Eisenhower administration.

But Kefauver took harder aim at farmers and organized labor and outbid Stevenson for both. While Stevenson talked of amending the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, Kefauver advocated its outright repeal.

Stevenson said he was for 90 per cent of parity support of farm prices but Kefauver proposed 100 per cent support for family-sized farms and 90 per cent for the big ones.

TO SHARE IN FUNDS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Wolfe (R-Union) said today he joined in co-sponsoring a bill to set up a five million dollar industrial redevelopment fund for Pennsylvania so that part of the money might be used in his senatorial district if needed.

Wolfe told a newsman, however, that he had no specific projects in mind for his home territory.

HAMMARSKJOLD ASKED TO SEEK MID-EAST PEACE

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States is asking the U. N. Security Council to assign Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to a peace mission aimed at keeping Israel and her Arab neighbors from each others' throats.

U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. put in a resolution last night calling on Hammarskjöld to confer urgently with both sides and secure adoption of measures to reduce tensions along the Holy Land armistice lines. The resolution specifically proposed:

1. A general pullback of forces from the frontiers.
2. Full freedom of movement for U. N. observers in border areas.
3. Local arrangements between Israeli and Arab commanders to prevent incidents and detect armistice violations.

British Are Ready
Hammarskjöld was asked to report back to the council within a month after adoption of the resolution.

Lodge entered the resolution only a day after he had called for an urgent council meeting on the Israeli-Arab crisis. The council is expected to meet early next week.

The New York Times in a dispatch from London said Britain has completed a plan for "effective military action within 24 hours" should an Arab-Israeli war

Indict 7 For Civil Service Violation

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP)—The Schuylkill County Grand jury has indicted seven borough councilmen on charges of violating the Civil Service Act.

The councilmen voted last Jan. 2 to reduce John P. Maher from police commissioner. He had been commissioner since 1945. Maher appealed to the Shenandoah Civil Service Commission which ordered him reinstated. Council refused and also dismissed the three members of the commission.

Maher brought criminal charges against the council. The seven members will stand trial at the next court term, starting April 2. The Civil Service Commission members said they'll ask for reinstatement by the court on grounds they were fired illegally. The indictments were handed down yesterday.

break out. The object of the plan would be to keep the conflict from spreading throughout the Middle East.

The Times said Britain reportedly would use her army, navy and air forces now concentrated on Cyprus and elsewhere in the Eastern Mediterranean area.

The British would act under the three-power declaration of 1950 pledging the United States, Britain and France to maintain Israel's existing frontiers and try to prevent the outbreak of war in the Middle East.

The U. S. resolution to the council—reportedly backed by Britain and France—also asks Hammarskjöld to find out whether Israel and the Arabs are complying with Israel's four 1949 armistice agreements—with Egypt, Syria, Jordan and Lebanon.

Chemical Pulp Mill Site Being Chosen

SYDNEY, N.S. (AP)—The Post Record yesterday quoted James L. Madden, vice president of Scott Paper Co., of Chester, Pa., as saying a proposed site at Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, appeared promising for a 35 million dollar chemical pulp mill.

Madden said a decision on the establishment of the mill probably will be announced late in April. The proposed mill would have a production capacity of 300 tons of chemical pulp a day.

There are over 60 million beef cattle in the United States.

Under the program, the youths will serve for a period of eight years with six months active duty and the remainder of the time attending drills once a week with the local reserve unit. The active duty time will not be served until they graduate from high school.

Have Vacancies

The Adams County reservists were enrolled under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

The program is designed to give youths an opportunity to meet their obligation of military service with the least interference to their personal lives and plans for an education or starting on a career.

Youths who wait to be drafted have to serve two years and then have a period of three years participating in the reserves.

M/Sgt. Leister, recruiting sergeant for the local reserve unit, said there are more vacancies in the local unit for young men in this age group. Further information is available at the U. S. Army Reserve Center, American Legion Building, Gettysburg.

GETS REPAIR CONTRACT

HARRISBURG (AP) — A $215,757 contract was awarded by the State Highways Department yesterday to the High Welding Co., Lancaster, for repairs to a steel truss bridge carrying Rt. 14 over the Susquehanna River at Northumberland.

RECEIVES LOW-BID

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General State Authority received an unofficial low bid yesterday of $7,446 from Dixon Co., Inc., Williamsport, for refrigerator installation at Laurelton State Village, Union County.

"MARTY" GIVEN OSCAR AWARD; BORGNIKE WINS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Marty," the movie originally made as a tax loss to offset big grosses of two Burt Lancaster Westerns, emerged today as the Oscar-winning picture.

It also won the top male acting Academy Award last night for Ernest Borgnine, an actor who only earned $2,300 in his profession three years ago. He is worth at least $150,000 a picture with Oscar behind him.

Anna Magnani, the fiery Italian, now in Rome, won the top female Oscar for her performance in "The Rose Tattoo."

Roused from sleep to be given the news, she shouted: "It's great... I feel just as if I'd built the Colosseum—it's all an earthquake inside."

Lemmon and Jo Van Fleet

The supporting actor award went to Jack Lemmon, the comic Ens. Pulver of "Mister Roberts." Jo Van Fleet, the madam mother of James Dean in "East of Eden," was named the best supporting actress.

Besides earning best picture and best actor awards, "Marty" also won an Oscar for the best screen play for playwright Paddy Chayefsky. He wrote the tender story of a lonely butcher first as a television play.

Delbert Mann, who directed "Marty" on TV and then for his movie debut, won the best direction award.

"Marty" was produced by the team of Harold Hecht and screen star Burt Lancaster.

Lancaster gave much of the credit for "Marty's" success to newspaper advertising. He told a reporter that the film cost only $343,000 to make but that half a million dollars was spent on an advertising campaign, much of it in newspapers seen by Academy voters.

Hollywood thought the two partners were slightly draft when they announced last year that they intended to make a movie about a homely butcher and a wallflower schoolteacher—with no big star names in the cast.

At the time Lancaster said, "We're making it because it's something we want to make."

He added that even if the picture didn't earn a cent it would be profitable as a tax loss against big grosses of "Vera Cruz" and "Apache," putting the producers in a lower tax bracket.

But "Marty" turned out to be a sleeper that won the Cannes Film Festival and New York Film Critics awards before getting last night's Oscar.

As for financial returns on the expected tax loss, Lancaster disclosed:

"So far the picture has grossed two million dollars and hasn't been put in general release yet."

Some Disappointment

A happy Borgnine said after receiving his Oscar:

"I felt wonderful, naturally, but I hadn't let my hopes get too high. I figured I didn't start out with anything in this town, so if I lost I still was way ahead of the game."

"Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing" was named the best song of the year.

Some disappointment was voiced by stars because no special award was given the late James Dean. An Academy official said it was decided to let Dean's performance stand on its merits with the other nominees for top acting.

Urges Deepening Of Upper Delaware

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Levittown, Pa., oil company executive and a Pennsylvania congressman yesterday urged a House appropriations subcommittee to appropriate six million dollars to deepen the upper Delaware River channel.

William C. Henwood, vice president of Meenan Oil Co., and Rep. King (R-Pa.) appeared before the group considering Army civil functions money requests for the year starting July 1. The six million dollars, recommended in would begin work on the project to deepen the Delaware's channel to 35 feet between Philadelphia and Trenton.

Henwood said deepening of the channel would open the possibility within the next five years of bringing T-2 tankers directly to their company's dockage at Tullytown, Pa., resulting in estimated annual savings of $86,250.

TEACH BABIES TO BE GENEROUS, ENJOY GIVING

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE M.D.
The Associated Press

Children are not born generous. Sharing and giving are things children must learn. And they begin learning very young, if — and it's a big IF — you teach them.

Babies are greedy, they are just born that way and haven't had time yet to mature. In the very beginning a baby probably doesn't quit distinguish between himself and his mother. He sucks his thumb. He doesn't realize that one if you and the other Me. He doesn't share, he merely takes. But as the months pass he does come to an understanding that "I" is something quite different from "You." He learns that his smiles and cute tricks get a response from you. This is perhaps the very beginning of giving — he shares with you his pleasure and enjoys your response. He enjoys giving you his smiles and laughs.

Soon comes the time he can grab an object and also let go "on purpose." If you give him a spoon or a small block and then put out your hand for it to be given back, he'll enjoy the giving as well as the taking.

When he's able to toddle about and can understand simple words you say:

Enjoys Accomplishment
"Jim, take the book to Daddy." Jim wobbles over to Daddy and hands him the book. Daddy obviously enjoys his baby's accomplishment and Jim begins to understand there is pleasure in giving as well as being given to.

By this time Jim is beginning to know not only "I" and "You" but also "Mine" and "Yours."

This is a big lesson. To understand "Yours" he must feel and understand "Mine."

Let Jim have toys, books that are his very own, that he may do with as he likes, that no one touches without asking his permission.

"No," you say, "that is Daddy's book, but here is your book."

Slowly, of so slowly, the idea gets across that not only he, but other members of the family have rights too. As his rights are respected so must he respect theirs.

When two little children get together, both may want the same toy. Whenever you can, try to have two toys as nearly alike as possible. The children aren't mature enough to share the single toy but they can share their companionship while each plays with a similar toy.

GIRLS SELL HAIR IN SICILY TO EARN MONEY

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Hair's a way to make money.

Women are doing it all the time in Sicily, where a unique little industry is flourishing based on this abundant natural resource — human hair.

You might see its products all help children learn to share. A see-saw requires two youngsters before there can be fun. A tea set lends itself to sharing. Often dolls and household "pretend" toys stimulate children to share their play. A ball is more fun when there are two to play.

Becomes Pleasureful
The child who grows up in an atmosphere where giving is enjoyed, soon finds giving a pleasure too.

He gets great pleasure when you and he can do something for another.

"Say, Jim, let's you and me make an apple pie for Daddy — Daddy just loves apple pie." Can't you just see Jim's face when he carries that pie to the table tonight?

most anywhere in the world: camouflaging the baldness of a man in New York, or curled in a fashionable "chignon" adorning the hairdo of a Parisienne.

Sicily furnishes much of the raw material for the world's wigs, toupees and false tresses — particularly those requiring black, luxuriant hair.

Grow Hair As Crop

Hair brokers wander from village to village, buying the long, black locks of Sicilian women and selling them to processors in the cities. Thousands of women make a practice of growing their hair like a crop, marketing it when it reaches saleable length. One woman gained specialized fame in the industry by her ability to grow ultra-long hair, with strands a yard and a half long.

Earnings are meager, even for the fastest growers — but most earnings are meager down here. A six-months growth might get 6,000 lire ($10) from the vagabond broker.

Center of the industry is Palermo. Here in the heart of the oldest part of the city is the establishment of the Brothers Lo Curcio, which employs 60 workers and processes about 70 per cent of Palermo's total hair production.

It's a painstaking process. The workers first sort the hair according to color, then unknot it and card it like wool. It's then divided by length, thoroughly washed, fur-

SEW A BAG OF MAN MADE FUR

The Associated Press

One of the new pets of the season is man-made fur, which is showing up in coats and accessories all over the country, in versions ranging from fake braver to fake mink, in all mutations.

You can buy it by the yard, too, and stitch up a refresher for a tired winter wardrobe. Fake fur comes in 54-inch widths, with a furry surface sorted out for quality, put through another cleaning process and finally packaged in lots of 100 grams each to be sent to the client.

Most of the foreign shipments go to the United States, with Australia also listed as a heavy buyer. In Europe, France, Austria and Germany are the best customers.

Actually, Sicily isn't the only place in Italy where hair is grown for market. The lighter hair of Piedmont women is much in demand, although there's less for sale.

But, say the Sicilians, for blackness and durability there's nothing like the crop down here.

That's why you practically never see a girl with a pony tail hair-do in Sicily. Her hair's gone to market.

face and a jersey back. It's a breeze to make a smart fake fur hat and bag from a standard pattern, if you follow these suggestions from local sewing center experts.

Since fake fur is treated as a matted fabric, be sure to use the cut-and-sew guide in the pattern envelope when laying out your fabric. When cutting out pieces, do not cut notches where indicated. Notches would get lost in the pile. Instead, mark with tailor's chalk or contrasting thread.

Use a loose tension on your sewing machine, a medium (size 14) needle and a long stitch — about 10 stitches to the inch. Strong three-ply thread is best for sewing on fake fur.

One of the most effective styles available in a current pattern is a deep cloche hat and a big satchel type bag, with smart leather straps. The hat comes in head sizes 21½ to 22½ and also is trimmed with a leather band. The bag has a long zipper on top and a smaller zipper inside. Use the zipper foot attachment of your machine to insert these zippers. Two-ply buckram makes a good stiff base for the lining of the bag.

Be sure to stitch the leather straps to the bag before sewing the sides together. When stitching across the leather to make loops secure, stitch back and forth several times for extra strength. The leather band on the hat may be tacked on by hand.

ANALYST SIZES UP KEFAUVER, A. STEVENSON

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower didn't really begin his all-out, slam-bang campaign for election in 1952 until after the Scripps-Howard newspapers complained he was running "like a dry creek."

Perhaps Adlai Stevenson will be affected the same way—if that's possible for him—by the clubbing he just took from Sen Estes Kefauver in the presidential primary in Minnesota.

After reflecting on this sad news, Stevenson said he will now "work harder" for the Democratic nomination. This may have been an acknowledgment he thought he had the Minnesota vote in his pocket and was just freezing in his campaign there.

No Balls of Fire
He's been no ball of fire so far. Perhaps it isn't in his nature to be. The slow-talking Kefauver has no edge on him in that department. He doesn't give off sparks either.

Up to now Stevenson has looked like a rerun of himself in 1952: dignified, scholarly and mild, even milder than in 1952 when Eisenhower beat him. Kefauver has a touch of the home town boy about him, even homespun.

Whether these personality differences had any significance in the Minnesota voting cannot be said now.

Tactics Much Alike
Nor can it be said the difference

In their tactics was significant. Where there was almost an elegance about Stevenson, whisking around Minnesota in search of votes the more casual Kefauver not only looked around shaking hands but looking for hands to shake.

It is just as possible Stevenson has worn out his welcome as a presidential candidate and voters are getting tired of his genteel approach to domestic and world issues.

Both men on Nov. 10 last year came out for "moderation" in this year's presidential campaign and they've stuck to that pretty much ever since, with Stevenson even more "moderate" than Kefauver.

Much Like Twins
On most subjects they talked like twins against the Eisenhower administration.

But Kefauver took harder aim at farmers and organized labor and outbid Stevenson for both. While Stevenson talked of amending the Taft-Hartley Labor Act, Kefauver advocated its outright repeal.

Stevenson said he was for 90 per cent of parity support of farm prices but Kefauver proposed 100 per cent support for family-sized farms and 90 per cent for the big ones.

TO SHARE IN FUNDS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Wolfe (R-Union) said today he joined in co-sponsoring a bill to set up a five million dollar industrial redevelopment fund for Pennsylvania so that part of the money might be used in his senatorial district if needed.

Wolfe told a newsman, however, that he had no specific projects in mind for his home territory.

HAMMARSKJOLD ASKED TO SEEK MID-EAST PEACE

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States is asking the U. N. Security Council to assign Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to a peace mission aimed at keeping Israel and her Arab neighbors from each others' throats.

U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. put in a resolution last night calling on Hammarskjöld to confer urgently with both sides and secure adoption of measures to reduce tensions along the Holy Land armistice lines.

The resolution specifically proposed:

1. A general pullback of forces from the frontiers.
2. Full freedom of movement for U. N. observers in border areas.
3. Local arrangements between Israeli and Arab commanders to prevent incidents and detect armistice violations.

British Are Ready
Hammarskjöld was asked to report back to the council within a month after adoption of the resolution.

Lodge entered the resolution only a day after he had called for an urgent council meeting on the Israeli-Arab crisis. The council is expected to meet early next week.

The New York Times in a dispatch from London said Britain has completed a plan for "effective military action within 24 hours" should an Arab-Israeli war

Indict 7 For Civil Service Violation

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP) — The Shenandoah County Grand Jury has indicted seven borough councilmen on charges of violating the Civil Service Act.

The councilmen voted last Jan. 2 to reduce John P. Maher from police commissioner. He had been commissioner since 1945. Maher appealed to the Shenandoah Civil Service Commission which ordered him reinstated. Council refused and also dismissed the three members of the commission.

Maher brought criminal charges against the council. The seven members will stand trial at the next court term, starting April 2. The Civil Service Commission members said they'll ask for reinstatement by the court on grounds they were fired illegally.

The indictments were handed down yesterday.

break out. The object of the plan would be to keep the conflict from spreading throughout the Middle East.

The Times said Britain reportedly would use her army, navy and air forces now concentrated on Cyprus and elsewhere in the Eastern Mediterranean area.

The British would act under the three-power declaration of 1950 pledging the United States, Britain and France to maintain Israel's existing frontiers and try to prevent the outbreak of war in the Middle East.

The U. S. resolution to the council—reportedly backed by Britain and France—also asks Hammarskjöld to find out whether Israel and the Arabs are complying with Israel's four 1949 armistice agreements—with Egypt, Syria, Jordan and Lebanon.

Mrs. Amos Meyers, York Springs, will be the speaker. Election of officers will take place.

A birthday party in honor of Sally Bigelow's tenth birthday anniversary was held in connection with the meeting of Brownie Troop 43 on Monday afternoon at the engine house. There were 21 Brownies in attendance together with Mrs. E. Paul Bigelow, Mrs. Robert H. Miller and Sally's brothers, Sonny and James Bigelow.

Chemical Pulp Mill Site Being Chosen

SYDNEY, N.S. (AP) — The Post Record yesterday quoted James L. Madden, vice president of Scott Paper Co., of Chester, Pa., as saying a proposed site at Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, appeared promising for a 35 million dollar chemical pulp mill.

Madden said a decision on the establishment of the mill probably will be announced late in April. The proposed mill would have a production capacity of 300 tons of chemical pulp a day.

Ike Appeals For Moderation On School Integration Issue; Confident Progress Possible

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday urged the nation not to regard the school integration issue as one which could separate Americans and create a nasty mess.

Eisenhower again, at a news conference, appealed for moderation. He said the problem of desegregation is one of deep emotion. But he said he is confident progress can be made.

For the second week in a row Eisenhower spoke with deep feeling of the controversy created by the Supreme Court's decisions striking down race segregation in public schools.

Discussing specifically the trial of a group of Negroes in Montgomery, Ala., in connection with the Negro boycott of that city's buses, Eisenhower said he understands there is an Alabama law covering that situation.

Shouldn't Stagnate

As for the situation generally in the South, Eisenhower said it is incumbent upon the people of that area to show some progress in good race relations.

That, he added, is what the Supreme Court asked for. The court, in implementing its segregation ban, called for progress with "all deliberate speed."

Eisenhower said we should not stagnate, and declared that again he wanted to plead for understanding between the races.

Mediation Best Way

He also dealt with these other matters:
MIDDLE EAST—Any outbreak of major hostilities in the Middle East would be a catastrophe for margin, Knowland stepped aside once Eisenhower announced he would seek a second term.

As for the farm situation, the President repeated a statement he first made in the 1952 campaign—that we should continue to work for 100 per cent parity in the market place.

If 100 per cent in the market place is not the goal, Eisenhower said, then crop surpluses will continue to pile up.

Hopes On Conference

Speaking then of the election year farm bill approved by the Senate two days ago, Eisenhower said he does not think it is a good bill. He said it is not workable and would bury the farmers under surpluses they couldn't stand.

His views along that line had been reported Tuesday by Republican congressional leaders.

The President expressed hope a Senate-House conference committee will be able to come up with a good bill. Such a group must try to reconcile the many differences between separate farm measures passed by the two branches of Congress.

Reiterating a stand against a return to rigid farm price supports, Eisenhower said you can't have a sound farm program merely by passing a law calling for such high supports.

In the Minnesota primary both Democratic candidates—Kefauver and Adlai Stevenson—advocated a return to supports at 90 per cent of parity. The administration has urged a flexible support system such as Congress voted last year.

Different Directions

STALIN — Eisenhower said no one can give a positive answer in trying to interpret the meaning of reports that the Soviet Union is trying to destroy the Stalin legend in Russia.

Eisenhower said if you read the writings of the late Premier Josef Stalin on Lenin you find that the Soviet line in the days of Lenin and Stalin was in one direction and the present line in another.

Therefore, Eisenhower said, the current regime has found it necessary to repudiate Stalin.

Views On Russia

A reporter asked whether Eisenhower saw any danger of U.S. Allies concluding that Russia, on the basis of the anti-Stalin campaign, has adopted new policies more friendly to the West.

Eisenhower replied there is no question in the minds of most of our Allies that the basic Communist objective is unchanged.

He expressed confidence America's Allies will not let their guards drop.

At the same time, he went on, we must make certain our own peaceful intentions stand out in clear opposition to what we believe to be the aims of the other side.

Not Keeping Score

CONGRESS—The President was told by a reporter that some Republicans are beginning to take the line in this election year that the Democratic-controlled Congress is a "do-nothing Congress."

Asked how he himself felt the administration's program is doing in Congress, Eisenhower replied he has not kept any score. He did say he feels his highway construction bill is making some progress, but that the school aid bill seems to be on dead center. He remarked, too, that the farm bill is in quite a jam.

Worthwhile Trips

INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS — Eisenhower announced he has arranged for Secretary of State Dulles to report at the White House this morning to Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress on his Far Eastern trip.

Eisenhower said such trips are hard on those making them, but nevertheless are worthwhile. They lead to better understanding among nations, he said.

In that connection, the President said he is sure a great deal of good will result from his meeting at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., next week with the President of Mexico and the Prime Minister of Canada, as well as his scheduled conference with Prime Minister Nehru of India in Washington next July.

Wants To Go To India

Asked whether he would go to India himself—as evangelist Billy Graham urged him to do Tuesday—the President smiled and said for 20 years he has been wanting to go to India but never has been able to do so. He said he still would like to go but that it is always a problem trying to decide which invitations to accept.

Eisenhower said he gave Graham 50 minutes of his time Tuesday because he is much interested in the evangelist's activities and the great crowds he draws.

HOOVER COMMISSION — The President announced the Defense Department has decided to accept 85 per cent of some 320 recommendations made for it by the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization. That commission was headed by former President Hoover.

Eisenhower said the Pentagon development calls for a vote of thanks for the commission. He said he expects the changes to bring about real economies as well as improved efficiency.

Practical Limitations

H-BOMB — Asked for comment on an atomic scientist's statement that a billion-ton hydrogen bomb could be made, Eisenhower said he has been told that while there is no theoretical limit to the size and destructive power of such bombs, there is a practical limit.

That latter limit is determined by the size of targets, for example, he added. There's an old saying, he recalled, that you do not drive tacks with sledgeham-

INMATE OF PEN ASKS FREEDOM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An inmate of the Eastern State Penitentiary has asked the Pennsylvania Superior Court for his freedom on grounds his conviction on burglary charges was not valid.

The appeal was filed on behalf of Calvin Tyson, convicted of burglary and larceny of an automobile from the city garage at Shamokin, Pa., in 1932.

Tyson escaped from the Northumberland County Jail and fled to Maryland, later going to Illinois. In the latter state he was asked if this state cared to start extradition proceedings.

Tyson contends Pennsylvania failed to act and Maryland extradited him on a murder charge. After his release by Maryland authorities he was brought back from that state by Pennsylvania police and sentenced to 5 to 10 years on the Shamokin counts.

He eventually was transferred to the penitentiary here. Specifically, Tyson asked the state court to overrule a decision by the Northumberland County Court which denied a writ of habeas corpus.

Return To Work In Scranton Strike

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Production workers at the U. S. Hoffman Machinery Co. returned to work Wednesday ending a six-day old strike which had idled 1,500 employees.

Members of Lodge 847, International Assn. of Machinists, voted 871 to 103 at a meeting Tuesday night to accept a 10-cent-an-hour wage increase.

The company offer, previously rejected by the union, included the 10 cent, across-the-board hike with an added 5 cents for laborers. The average wage under the new contract is $2.07 an hour for production workers and $1.70 for unskilled laborers. The contract, retroactive to March 14, provides for a seventh paid holiday and 5 cents an hour additional for workers employed on the over-night shift.

NATURAL FINISHES

There are several ways to obtain a so-called natural finish that reveals the grain of wood to some degree. One is to apply several thin coats of linseed oil and finish with wax. Another is to apply shellac or varnish before waxing. Shellac should be thinned with alcohol at least half and half or in accordance with directions on the can.

U. S. PROPOSES INSPECTIONS IN TEST AREAS BY ARMS TEAMS

LONDON (AP)—Seeking to replace years of talk about disarmament with concrete action, the United States wants 40,000 to 60,000 square miles of Russian and American territory opened to international arms inspection teams.

The U. S. proposal for a preliminary test of disarmament controls was made last night at a meeting of the five-power U. N. subcommittee on disarmament, between the two top military powers. It is aimed at paving the way to a comprehensive program of controlled arms reduction. Britain and France earlier this week submitted an arms control plan linked to a general disarmament pact.

Subcommittee delegates referred the American plan to their governments. It may not be taken up again here for a week.

The U. S. proposal came a few hours before officials here and in Washington disclosed that the Soviet Union has launched a new series of nuclear tests. There were no details as to what type tests were carried out, but presumably they were held in Siberia.

Information presumably was obtained through checks of radioactive material in the atmosphere. Western observatories in northern Japan recorded increased radioactivity in rain and snow which fell this week.

The U. S. pilot plan for testing disarmament controls was presented by Harold Stassen, special assistant on disarmament to President Eisenhower.

It calls for the United States and the Soviet Union each to open up 20,000 to 30,000 square miles of their territory to inspection teams representing the five U. N.

Drives 120 Miles To Give Girl Lost Pup

OMAHA (AP)—In Omaha a little girl cried herself to sleep because her pup had been shot. A hundred and 20 miles away a lost pup shivered on a bed of rags in a filling station.

At the Winterset, Iowa, station Omaha trucker Larry W. Davis and other over-the-road haulers watched the pup and listened to a radio report of the heartbreak of Cathy Katzenberger, 6.

"We decided the little girl needed the pup and the pup needed her. We took a straw vote and I was elected to bring them together. It sure was worth it," said Clark after making the delivery.

Bite Of Hamburger Costs Youth $7

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Robert Simms Popejoy, 18, was fined $7 for taking a bite out of a stranger's hamburger. Officers said Popejoy walked over to a booth at a cafe, took the sandwich off a plate, took a bite and put it back.

He said he thought he knew the hamburger-owner, but he turned out to be a stranger.

subcommittee members — Britain, France, Canada, Russia and the United States.

The inspection teams would carry out various forms of ground checks, make aerial photographs, make tests of port control and then report back to the subcommittee with their findings.

Stassen suggested the demonstration areas should include non-secret military installations, facilities and units; at least one port; an airfield; and a railroad terminal.

Russia's subcommittee representative, Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, had no immediate comment on the U. S. proposal. Britain, France and Canada were reported to have expressed agreement in informal talks outside the subcommittee sessions.

HOSTESS KEEPS BATH SHINING

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press
Do you keep your vanity table

and bathroom prepares for guests? It is just as important to clean and equip your bathroom as the rest of your house when company is expected. Many housewives clean the living room until it shines like a moonstone. Then their charmed guests retire to wash their hands before dinner, and lo, the bathroom is a shambles. The youngsters have thrown towels willy-nilly after the bath, the hand soap is stuck to the bottom of the tub and the floor is a slippery mess.

The children are not always to blame for this taking a last minute shower scene. Sometimes the man of the house is responsible for the confusion.

If the bathroom is checked before company arrives, it can be readied in a jiffy. It is a good idea to put out guest towels and clean soap about a half hour before company is expected. A final check of the vanity table should be made at this time too, whether it is located in the bathroom, a powder niche or the bedroom.

Equip With Necessities

The vanity should be equipped with face powder, cleansing tissues, lipstick, nail file, clothes brush and emergency comb. Some guests hesitate to ask for these little grooming accessories. The clothes brush is especially important in the home where dogs and cats have free reign — some people do not like to carry home hair on their clothes picked up on your sofas and chairs.

Americans paid about $9 billion dollars in taxes in 1955.

TEACH BABIES TO BE GENEROUS, ENJOY GIVING

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE M.D.
The Associated Press
Children are not born generous. Sharing and giving are things children must learn. And they begin learning very young, IF — and it's a big IF — you teach them.
Babies are greedy, they are just born that way and haven't had time yet to mature. In the very beginning a baby probably doesn't quit distinguish between himself and his mother. He sucks his mother's breast, he sucks his thumb. He doesn't realize that one if You and the other Me. He doesn't share, he merely takes. But as the months pass he does come to an understanding that "I" is something quite different from "You." He learns that his smiles and cute tricks get a response from you. This is perhaps the very beginning of giving — he shares with you his pleasure and enjoys your response. He enjoys giving you his smiles and laughs.
Soon comes the time he can grab an object and also let go "on purpose." If you give him a spoon or a small block and then put out your hand for it to be given back, he'll enjoy the giving as well as the taking.

When he's able to toddle about and can understand simple words you say:
Enjoys Accomplishment
"Jim, take the book to Daddy." Jim wobbles over to Daddy and hands him the book. Daddy obviously enjoys his baby's accomplishment and Jim begins to understand there is pleasure in understanding as well as being given to.
By this time Jim is beginning to know not only "I" and "You" but also "Mine" and "Yours."
This is a big lesson.
To understand "Yours" he must feel and understand "Mine."
Let Jim have toys, books that are his very own, that he may do with as he likes, that no one touches without asking his permission.
"No," you say, "that is Daddy's book, but here is your book."
Slowly, of so slowly, the idea gets across that not only he, but other members of the family have rights too. As his rights are respected so must he respect theirs.
When two little children get together, both may want the same toy. Whenever you can, try to have two toys as nearly alike as possible. The children aren't mature enough to share the single toy but they can share their companionship while each plays with a similar toy.
A little later cooperative games

GIRLS SELL HAIR IN SICILY TO EARN MONEY

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Hair's a way to make money.
Women are doing it all the time in Sicily, where a unique little industry is flourishing based on this abundant natural resource — human hair.
You might see its products all help children learn to share. A see-saw requires two youngsters before there can be fun. A tea set lends itself to sharing. Often dolls and household "pretend" toys stimulate children to share their play. A ball is more fun when there are two to play.
Becomes Pleasureful
The child who grows up in an atmosphere where giving is enjoyed, soon finds giving a pleasure too.
He gets great pleasure when you and he can do something for another.
"Say, Jim, let's you and me make an apple pie for Daddy — Daddy just loves apple pie." Can't you just see Jim's face when he carries that pie to the table tonight?"

most anywhere in the world: camouflaging the baldness of a man in New York, or curled in a fashionable "chignon" adorning the hairdo of a Parisienne.
Sicily furnishes much of the raw material for the world's wigs, toupees and false tresses — particularly those requiring black, luxuriant hair.
Grow Hair As Crop
Hair brokers wander from village to village, buying the long, black locks of Sicilian women and selling them to processors in the cities. Thousands of women make a practice of growing their hair like a crop, marketing it when it reaches saleable length. One woman gained specialized fame in the industry by her ability to grow ultra-long hair, with strands a yard and a half long.
Earnings are meager, even for the fastest growers — but most earnings are meager down here. A six-months growth might get 6,000 lire ($10) from the vagabond broker.
Center of the industry is Palermo. Here in the heart of the oldest part of the city is the establishment of the Brothers Lo Curcio, which employs 60 workers and processes about 70 per cent of Palermo's total hair production.
It's a painstaking process. The workers first sort the hair according to color, then unknot it and card it like wool. It's then divided by length, thoroughly washed, fur-

SEW A BAG OF MAN MADE FUR

The Associated Press
One of the new pets of the season is man-made fur, which is showing up in coats and accessories all over the country, in versions ranging from fake beaver to fake mink, in all mutations.
You can buy it by the yard, too, and stitch up a refresher for a tired winter wardrobe. Fake fur comes in 54-inch widths, with a furry surface sorted out for quality, put through another cleaning process and finally packaged in lots of 100 grams each to be sent to the client.
Most of the foreign shipments go to the United States, with Australia also listed as a heavy buyer in Europe, France, Austria and Germany are the best customers.
Actually, Sicily isn't the only place in Italy where hair is grown for market. The lighter hair of Piedmont women is much in demand, although there's less for sale.
But, say the Sicilians, for blackness and durability there's nothing like the crop down here.
That's why you practically never see a girl with a pony tail hair-do in Sicily. Her hair's gone to market.

face and a jersey back. It's a breeze to make a smart fake fur hat and bag from a standard pattern, if you follow these suggestions from local sewing center experts.
Since fake fur is treated as a napped fabric, be sure to use the cut-and-sew guide in the pattern envelope when laying out your fabric. When cutting out pieces, do not cut notches where indicated. Notches would get lost in the pile. Instead, mark with tailor's chalk or contrasting thread.
Use a loose tension on your sewing machine, a medium (size 14) needle and a long stitch — about 10 stitches to the inch. Strong three-ply thread is best for sewing on fake fur.
One of the most effective styles available in a current pattern is a deep cloche hat and a big satchel-type bag, with smart leather straps. The hat comes in head sizes 21½ to 22½ and also is trimmed with a leather band. The bag has a long zipper on top and a smaller zipper inside. Use the zipper foot attachment of your machine to insert these zippers. Two-ply buckram makes a good stiff base for the lining of the bag.
Be sure to stitch the leather straps to the bag before sewing the sides together. When stitching across the leather to make loops secure, stitch back and forth several times for extra strength. The leather band on the hat may be tacked on by hand.

Musseman Statement Cites Processes Between Food In Field And Food On The Table

John A. Hauser, president of the C. H. Musseman Co., at its annual cherry and raspberries growers' dinner at Biglerville Tuesday night distributed a statement on "The Life Line Of America," giving "facts on the line of essential processes between food in the field and food on the table."

Mr. Hauser said the statement was prepared for distribution because "there is much talk about the spread between what the farmer receives and what the consumer pays. Because of that, particularly in an election year, we thought some facts ought to be gotten together to see what causes the spread." The statement follows:

Under Constant Fire

"The process of moving crops from farm to table — agriculture, research, manufacturing, transportation, wholesaling, retailing and consuming — is often called the Life Line of America. Food processors, such as The C. H. Musseman Company, play an important part in this system.

"This Life Line is under fire from all sides because herein lies the difference between what the farmer receives and what the consumer pays for food products at the retail grocery store — the price spread between farmer and consumer. In short: the farm problem.

"This is a presidential year with the farm problem certain to be one of the major issues. That there is a problem is certainly no myth; it is very real. So real that it is worthy of more than glib statements tossed around recklessly by politicians with an eye only to attract the important farm vote.

Farmer, Consumer Spread

"To whitewash the spread between farmer and consumer, the Life Line will be under attack at every turn. Processors' profits are already a target. Let's examine this thing called spread more closely before drawing any conclusions.

"For the purpose of making fair comparisons, the U.S. Department of Agriculture uses an imaginary 'family market basket' as a measuring stick. It contains basic, raw farm products that are reasonably staple from year to year.

"In 1952, according to USDA, farmers received $482 for the farm commodities in this market basket. In 1955, they received only $400 for the same quantity of raw farm products — a decline of 82.

Why? An accurate answer would be the basis of a solution to the complex farm problem.

"Consumer's Angle"

"Now the consumer's angle: In 1952 the consumer paid $1035 for this basket. In 1955 he paid only $980, says USDA, a saving of 53. Thus, two-thirds of the 82 farm decline was passed along to the consumer.

"But what about the other one-third, the remaining 27?

Higher costs of wages and salaries of food processing and distributing employees.

Higher transportation costs (due largely to higher wages and higher taxes.)

Slightly lower Federal taxes, a "plus factor"

Reasonable Profits

"This accounts for the entire one-third decline that was not passed along to the consumer. It also shows that there could not have been any change in net profits of food processors and distributors after income taxes during this period, 1952-1955. No food processor, or any other business organization for that matter, denies reasonable profits or makes apologies for them. But the food processor has no intention of becoming the scapegoat for the farm situation.

"This is a presidential year. Political candidates are looking for issues. Acquaint yourself with the facts; then draw your own conclusions."

Tells Of "Junkets" By Bridge Officials

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Yosko (D-Northampton) said Wednesday a Highway Department official testified that three officials of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission "made an unnecessary, non-business, pleasure junket" to Phoenix, Ariz., and Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Highway Department official, Leo A. Porter, chief bridge

SPRING KEEPS STYLES STRAIGHT AND NARROW

By DOROTHY ROE
The Associated Press

The more you can look like a fence post this spring, the better. There are various names for the increasingly popular slim silhouette — shaft, tube, column and sheath are a few. But it all adds up to the fact that most new dresses are straight and narrow, with no room for bulges.

New York designers are in almost complete accord on the importance of the sheath, but they are doing interesting tricks to make the spring versions look strictly new.

The Empire look is much in evidence, achieved by high-placed belts, brief boleros, detailed effects at the bustline, brief shoulder capes, and so on.

Assume Tubular Look

Waistlines again are less nipped, to achieve the desired "tube" look. Skirts for daytime wear are as narrow as possible, with walking room provided by such devices as slits and kick pleats placed low and at the back.

There is a great deal of back interest in the new fashions, with back panels, back belts and back fastenings.

The bolero costume probably is the top favorite in the spring lineup. It consists of the slimmest possible sheath dress topped by a matching brief bolero, curved, fitted and fastening just below the bust. It looks much like a one-piece dress until the bolero is removed, revealing a dress which may be low-cut and short-sleeved, or may have a contrasting top.

New Style For Spring

There also is the double-bolero suit, a brand-new idea for spring. This features a slim, high-raising skirt usually attached to a bodice, a matching brief bolero and beneath this a second bolero blouse in white linen or contrasting fabric. When you peel off the top bolero you have a costume with contrasting top.

Fabrics for spring are beautiful, varied and designed to fool the eye. Silks look like wool, cottons look like silk, wools look like chiffon, linens look like tweed and the new synthetics can look like anything from sheerest organdie to men's wear worsted.

All tones of brown are running a close race with navy as the favorite color for spring suits and costumes, most of which are lightweight and planned for warm-weather wear.

Coats Are Looser

Coats develop a looser look, in contrast with the sheath line of suits and dresses. Some have low-placed fullness, some have wider shoulders or dolman sleeves.

There are more long evening gowns than formerly, following the current trend toward greater formality.

Also new in the spring lineup is the harem skirt, with a wide band at the hemline, drawing the skirt into a narrow line at the bottom.

engineer, appeared Tuesday afternoon before a legislative committee investigating charges of extravagance in the use of commission funds. The hearing was closed to the public.

Yosko, chairman of the investigating committee, said that Porter named as making the trip at a cost of $4,000 Alex Miller, former chairman of the commission; William H. Wilson, Easton, chief engineer, and J. Lawrence Davis, of Bangor, a commission attorney.

Women Make Money At Man's Business

BARRETT'S FERRY, Va. (AP) — Two widows and a young miss have achieved success here in what's usually considered a man's world.

They operate a hunting-fishing mecca on the banks of the Chickahominy river. They rent boats and motors, duck blinds and dock facilities and sell fishing tackle and bait. You can also rent a hunting cabin.

Mrs. Ellen Hofmeyer is president of the company. Her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hofmeyer McKiff, is vice president and treasurer, and Miss Ellen Browning, a granddaughter of Mrs. Hofmeyer, is their assistant. Mr. Hofmeyer started the business and at his death the women took over.

They also hunt and fish themselves and they encourage men to bring their wives with them on their trips.

WON AND LOST

NOBEL, Ark. (AP) — The woman mayor of this tiny Arkansas town had a tough time gaining reelection, but she managed to do it.

Miss Pauline Baker and Harley Gowen tied in the regular election, so the state attorney general ordered a run-off.

Miss Baker won but the men gained control of the government, by ousting three women from the 5-member City Council.

Community Health Week, March 18-24

"I know it's there. The doctor says heat is good for my neuritis."

ARMY OKAYS NEW SWAMP FOX UNIT

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Swamp Fox unit at Brady, Tex., has the Army's official go-ahead signal.

The 4th Army also let it be known it had supplied weapons and professional guidance for what it called the "Independent Texas military organization."

The Swamp Fox unit is composed of nine boys from 8 to 13 years old, headed by "Acting 1st Sgt." Garry Bob Moore, 13, and Sgt. 1/c James Robert Ables.

Describes Training

Lt. Gen. J. H. Collier, 4th Army commander, first became aware of Swamp Fox when he received a letter from the boys. The letter described the after-school training unit, its foxholes, sandbags and use of rocks for grenades.

Would the 4th Army please send some dummy grenades, broken guns, "battered helmets, old belts, canteens, torn clothes and anything else you are going to junk and throw away?" the letter asked.

"We will gladly pay postage," the letter added airily.

Parents Foll Plan

The next mail brought a hurried note asking the 4th Army to forget the whole thing. Swamp Fox members had received some parental advice about mailing costs.

Gen. Collier, impressed by the boys and their declared intention to join the Army when they were old enough, wasn't willing to forget it all. He wrote Sgt. Moore and Ables asking the whole Swamp Fox unit — if parents agreed — to visit Fort Hood.

A quick acceptance, signed by Garry Bob who had meanwhile been promoted to Commandant Moore, arrived.

Go On Post Tour

At Ft. Hood the nine Swamp Fox members and their mascot — 9-year-old Elizabeth Ricks — were taken on a tour of the post. They ate C-rations, made dry runs with small arms, swarmed through tanks and helicopters, and were greeted personally by Gen. Collier.

From old equipment that had been gathering dust, they were then issued helmet liners, pistol belts, canteens, a pup tent, a first-aid pouch, and — as a result of lucky find — some wooden training rifles.

TARNISH SPRAY

Housewives may soon be able to spray their silverware between uses with an anti-tarnish coating that gives lasting protection but can be removed easily by washing in soap and water before the silver is used again. Plans are under way to package the spray in push-button aerosol containers.

U. S. PROPOSES INSPECTIONS IN TEST AREAS BY ARMS TEAMS

LONDON (AP)—Seeking to replace years of talk about disarmament with concrete action, the United States wants 40,000 to 60,000 square miles of Russian and American territory opened to international arms inspection teams.

The U. S. proposal for a preliminary test of disarmament controls was made last night at a meeting of the five-power U. N. subcommittee on disarmament, between the two top military powers. It is aimed at paving the way to a comprehensive program of controlled arms reduction Britain and France earlier this week submitted an arms control plan linked to a general disarmament pact.

Subcommittee delegates referred the American plan to their governments. It may not be taken up again here for a week.

The U. S. proposal came a few hours before officials here and in Washington disclosed that the Soviet Union has launched a new series of nuclear tests. There were no details as to what type tests were carried out, but presumably they were held in Siberia.

Information presumably was obtained through checks of radioactive material in the atmosphere. Western observatories in northern Japan recorded increased radioactivity in rain and snow which fell this week.

The U. S. plan for testing disarmament controls was presented by Harold Stassen, special assistant on disarmament to President Eisenhower.

It calls for the United States and the Soviet Union each to open up 20,000 to 30,000 square miles of their territory to inspection teams representing the five U. N.

Drives 120 Miles To Give Girl Lost Pup

OMAHA (AP)—In Omaha a little girl cried herself to sleep because her pup had been shot. A hundred and 20 miles away a lost pup shivered on a bed of rags in a filling station.

At the Winterset, Iowa, station Omaha trucker Larry W. Davis and other over-the-road haulers watched the pup and listened to a radio report of the heartbreak of Cathy Katzenberger, 6.

"We decided the little girl needed the pup and the pup needed her. We took a straw vote and I was elected to bring them together. It sure was worth it," said Clark after making the delivery.

Bite Of Hamburger Costs Youth $7

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Robert Summs Popejoy, 18, was fined $7 for taking a bite out of a stranger's hamburger. Officers said Popejoy walked over to a booth at a cafe, took the sandwich off a plate, took a bite and put it back. He said he thought he knew the hamburger-owner, but he turned out to be a stranger.

subcommittee members — Britain, France, Canada, Russia and the United States.

The inspection teams would carry out various forms of ground checks, make aerial photographs, make tests of port control and then report back to the subcommittee with their findings.

Stassen suggested the demonstration areas should include non-secret military installations, facilities and units; at least one port; an airfield; and a railroad terminal.

Russia's subcommittee representative, Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, had no immediate comment on the U. S. proposal. Britain, France and Canada were reported to have expressed agreement in informal talks outside the subcommittee sessions.

HOSTESS KEEPS BATH SHINING

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press
Do you keep your vanity table

and bathroom prepares for guests? It is just as important to clean and equip your bathroom as the rest of your house when company is expected. Many housewives clean the living room until it shines like a moonstone. Then their charmed guests retire to wash their hands before dinner, and lo, the bathroom is a shambles. The youngsters have thrown towels willy-nilly after the bath, the hand soap is stuck to the bottom of the tub and the floor is a slippery mess.

The children are not always to blame for this taking a last minute shower scene. Sometimes the man of the house is responsible for the confusion.

If the bathroom is checked before company arrives, it can be readied in a jiffy. It is a good idea to put out guest towels and clean soap about a half hour before company is expected. A final check of the vanity table should be made at this time too, whether it is located in the bathroom, a powder niche or the bedroom.

Equip With Necessities

The vanity should be equipped with face powder, cleansing tissues, lipstick, nail file, clothes brush and emergency comb. Some guests hesitate to ask for these little grooming accessories. The clothes brush is especially important in the home where dogs and cats have free reign — some people do not like to carry home hair on their clothes picked up on your sofas and chairs.

Americans paid about 90 billion dollars in taxes in 1955.

BILL ASSURES SALARIES FOR COUNTY STAFFS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Counties Committee has approved a bill aimed at making sure officials in 40 smaller counties receive their full pay regardless of the fees they collect through their office.

Introduced March 7 by Reps. Johnson (R-McKean), Wheeler (D-Fayette) and Horst (R-Franklin) the bill is the result of the holdup in the February pay of sheriff James W. Coldsmith of Franklin County.

The county commissioners had held up $177.93 of Coldsmith's pay until fees collected by his office in January and February showed a credit balance. Such a balance is necessary under the 1955 county code.

Adams On List

The new bill, sent to the floor Tuesday, would require full payment of salaries of county officials fixed by law in sixth, seventh and eight class counties. It applies to the solicitor, jailer, commissioners, controller, surveyor, engineer and their deputies, clerks and employees.

The counties are Armstrong, Bradford, Carbon, Centre, Clearfield, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Franklin, Indiana, Jefferson, Lebanon, McKean, Somerset, Venango, Adams, Bedford, Clarion, Clinton, Elk, Greene, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Monroe, Perry, Snyder, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Warren, Wayne, Cameron, Forest, Fulton, Juniata, Montour, Pike, Potter, Sullivan and Wyoming.

The bill states that the specified employees in these counties "be paid the full amount allowed by law but all fees and emoluments whatsoever that may accrue to any of them by virtue of his office shall be paid by him to the county treasurer as directed by law."

MACLEISH RENAMED

NEW YORK (AP) — Archibald MacLeish has been re-elected president of the American Academy of Arts and Letters. Other officers kept in their posts at the annual meeting were Mark Van Doren, chancellor; Douglas Moore, secretary; Deems Taylor, treasurer.

HOUSE STUDIES CIVIL SERVICE

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House had before it Tuesday an administration backed proposal that would extend state civil service to personnel in the technical and professional fields in Pennsylvania government.

Gov. Leader on Tuesday urged the lawmakers to give the measure quick consideration means of bringing about "more efficient government."

"Two vital factors which attract first-rate people to the service of their state are salary and job security," Leader said, adding: "Our state government must improve both if we are to have efficient government."

The bill was introduced Tuesday by House Democratic Leader Readinger. Shortly after it was sent to committee, it was approved and sent to the floor for today's discussion.

The new bill would replace the civil service act of 1941 and cover all positions contained in that law and add new positions.

PURGER GIVEN TOP RED JOB

VIENNA (AP) — Edward Ochab, who purged Polish farm trade union and army ranks, has been named to succeed Boleslaw Bierut as boss of Poland's Communist party.

Warsaw radio Wednesday announced the election of Ochab as first secretary of the Communist United Workers' party. Bierut died in Moscow March 12.

Ochab, now 50 and a long-time Red, rose through the ranks to such key posts as boss of the peasant cooperatives, head of the trade unions, political chief of the army and Politburo member.

So far in Vienna have predicted that the new secretary will share a "collective leadership" of Communist Poland along with Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and with Moscow exercising even closer supervision than in the past.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Judge Henry Sweeney of Delaware County Court has released 26 officials and members of Local 107, Independent United Electrical Workers who spent 19 days in Broadmeadows Prison on contempt charges in the strike at the Lester, Pa., plant of the Westinghouse Electric Corp.

The 26 were formally freed at the Delaware County Sheriff's office under an order issued by the jurist a short time earlier.

The judge set April 16 as the Martin engineers'.

BALTIMORE (AP) — A rocket resembling a huge rifle cartridge—72 feet long and only 45 inches in diameter at its widest point—will carry the earth's first man-made moon 300 miles into outer space in about 10 minutes.

The first public description of the 22,600-pound Vanguard rocket was given yesterday in a joint Navy-Glenn L. Martin Co. announcement.

Martin is building the three-stage rocket, which is scheduled for launching from the Air Force missile test center at Cocoa, Fla., as part of this country's participation in the International Geophysical Year, 1957-58.

Martin said the Vanguard will be the "first liquid fuel rocket designed to be controlled without the use of fins," an innovation termed "a scientific break-through by

DESCRIBE MOON MOVING ROCKET

BALTIMORE (AP)—A rocket resembling a huge rifle cartridge—72 feet long and only 45 inches in diameter at its widest point—will carry the earth's first man-made moon 300 miles into outer space in about 10 minutes.

The first public description of the 22,600-pound Vanguard rocket was given yesterday in a joint Navy-Glenn L. Martin Co. announcement.

Martin is building the three-stage rocket, which is scheduled for launching from the Air Force missile test center at Cocoa, Fla., as part of this country's participation in the International Geophysical Year, 1957-58.

Martin said the Vanguard will be the "first liquid fuel rocket designed to be controlled without the use of fins," an innovation termed "a scientific break-through by

26 Unionists Freed; Get Hearing April 16

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Judge Henry Sweeney of Delaware County Court has released 26 officials and members of Local 107, Independent United Electrical Workers who spent 18 days in Broadmeadows Prison on contempt charges in the strike at the Lester, Pa., plant of the Westinghouse Electric Corp.

The 26 were formally freed at the Delaware County Sheriff's office under an order issued by the jurist a short time earlier.

The judge set April 16 as the Martin engineers."

The rocket will be guided by a power plant installed on a semi-pivot, making possible directional changes in the stream of power from the rocket's tail. This plant will guide the rocket.

Sonotone Corp. will spend $1,000,000 — $600,000 for newspaper space—to introduce its new "Sonotone 79," a cordless, 1/2-ounce hearing aid.

Balance of the budget (via Doherty, Clifford, Steers and Shenfield) will go to magazines ($300,000) and promotion ($100,000).

Arthur H. Truit, retail sales promotion manager, Montgomery Ward & Co., since Sept. 21, 1955, is quick to point out that for years the giant retail mail order house has placed more than 80% of its advertising dollar in direct newspaper lineage.

"In my opinion," he says, "newspaper advertising offers the most economical and effective means of developing and sustaining a mass media impact within a retail store community."

"Customer needs and preferences differ widely in various regions throughout the country. Newspapers give Wards flexibility, speed and control in keeping our stores competitive on a day-to-day basis at the local level."

"Newspapers are our No. 1

local and retail selling medium," says Robert M. Gray, advertising manager, Esso Standard Oil Co.

"With more than 25,000 independent Esso dealers, we have a real interest in the retail business. By using some 700 newspapers in our marketing area, we give advertising support to our dealers in their own local areas."

Pointing out Esso has used newspaper advertising consistently for years, Gray said, "It is an outstanding and impressive way of building favorable acceptance of our company and Esso dealers, and of selling our products."

"Newspapers are a medium in which we are able to spread the complete news of our basic product selling story. As a manufacturer, it is important that we tell the complete selling story of our products to all motorists often and in a medium which attracts customers to our dealers."

"Newspapers give us this opportunity, plus the flexibility and timeliness to meet local conditions."

"And, finally," he adds, "the strong local retail effect of newspapers is shown by the way Esso dealers spend their own money to run tie-in ads with our basic selling messages."

A bill has been offered in Congress which would make women officially "old" at the age of 62. The idea is to make women eligible for social security benefits at 62 instead of 65, the present retirement age. This would shove the ladies into the rocking chair class at a time when most of them are trying to forget the matter for at least 20 or more years.

Drowsiness and a "cat nap" in an easy chair at home can be most relaxing but it's another and very dangerous matter when you're behind the wheel of your car. Hundreds of needless accidents, many of them fatal, happen each year because drivers dozed "for just a second." Drowsiness is a serious danger. Whether caused by loss of sleep, fatigue, physical defect or long periods of monotonous driving, it is bound to cause trouble, many times fatal to others and to the driver. Guard against it by driving off the road, clear of traffic, and rest or sleep awhile before continuing.

President Eisenhower favors

a complete network of modern highways. In a recent statement he said: "The importance of completely modernizing the Interstate Highway System, which links together the principal cities by 40,000 miles of road, is so clear and so widely recognized that it requires no elaboration in this report. The country urgently needs an integrated network of safe, controlled-access highways to relieve existing congestion and to provide for the expected growth of motor vehicle traffic. A modernized interstate system would also help to strengthen the nation's defenses and to reduce the toll of human life exacted each year in highway accidents."

The word "magnet" derives from Megnesium, ancient Turkish city where the magnetism of a lodestone was observed.

Musseman Statement Cites Processes Between Food In Field And Food On The Table

John A. Hauser, president of the C. H. Musseman Co., at its annual cherry and raspberry growers' dinner at Biglerville Tuesday night distributed a statement on "The Life Line Of America" giving facts on the line of essential processes between food in the field and food on the table.

Mr. Hauser said the statement was prepared for distribution because "there is much talk about the spread between what the farmer receives and what the consumer pays. Because of that particularly in an election year we thought some facts ought to be gotten together to see what causes the spread." The statement follows:

Under Constant Fire
"The process of moving crops from farm to table — agriculture, research, manufacturing, transportation, wholesaling, retailing, and consuming — is often called the Life Line of America. Food processors such as The C. H. Musseman Company play an important part in this system.

"This Life Line is under fire from all sides because herein lies the difference between what the farmer receives and what the consumer pays for food products at the retail grocery store — the price spread between farmer and consumer. In short: the farm problem.

"This is a presidential year with the farm problem certain to be one of the major issues. That there is a problem is certainly no myth, it is very real. So real that it is worthy of more than glib statements tossed around recklessly by politicians with an eye only to attract the important farm vote.

Farmer, Consumer Spread
"To whitewash the spread between farmer and consumer, the Life Line will be under attack at every turn. Processors' profits are already a target. Let's examine this thing called spread more closely before drawing any conclusions.

"For the purpose of making fair comparisons, the U. S. Department of Agriculture uses an imaginary 'family market basket' as a measuring stick. It contains basic, raw farm products that are reasonably staple from year to year.

"In 1952, according to USDA, farmers received $482 for the farm commodities in this market basket. In 1955, they received only $400 for the same quantity of raw farm products — a decline of $82.

Why? An accurate answer would be the basis of a solution to the complex farm problem.

"Consumer's Angle"

"Now the consumer's angle. In 1952 the consumer paid $1035 for this basket. In 1955 he paid only $980, says USDA, a saving of $55. Thus, two-thirds of the $82 farm decline was passed along to the consumer.

But what about the other one-third the remaining $27?

Higher costs of wages and salaries of food processing and distributing employees.

Higher transportation costs (due largely to higher wages and higher taxes).

Other higher business expenses — rent, utilities, depreciation on packaging supplies, etc.

Slightly lower Federal taxes, a "plus factor"

Reasonable Profits
"This accounts for the entire one-third decline that was not passed along to the consumer. It also shows that there could not have been any change in net profits of food processors and distributors after income taxes during this period, 1952-1955. No food processor, or any other business organization for that matter, denies reasonable profits or makes apologies for them. But the food processor has no intention of becoming the scapegoat for the farm situation.

"This is a presidential year. Political candidates are looking for issues. Acquaint yourself with the facts, then draw your own conclusions."

Tells Of "Junkets" By Bridge Officials

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Yosko (D-Northampton) said Wednesday a Highway Department official testified that three officials of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission "made an unnecessary, non-business, pleasure junket" to Phoenix, Ariz., and Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Highway Department official, Leo A. Porter, chief bridge

SPRING KEEPS STYLES STRAIGHT AND NARROW

The Associated Press

The more you can look like a femme post this spring the better. There are various names for the increasingly popular slim silhouette — shaft, tube, column and sheath are a few. But it all adds up to the fact that most new dresses are straight and narrow, with no room for bulges.

New York designers are in almost complete accord on the importance of the sheath, but they are doing interesting tricks to make the spring versions look strictly new.

The Empire look is much in evidence, achieved by high-placed belts, brief boleros, detailed effects at the bustline, brief shoulder capes, and so on.

Assume Tubular Look
Waistlines again are less nipped, to achieve the desired "tube" look. Skirts for daytime wear are as narrow as possible, with walking room provided by such devices as slits and kick pleats placed low and at the back.

There is a great deal of back interest in the new fashions, with back panels, back belts and back fastenings.

The bolero costume probably is the top favorite in the spring lineup. It consists of the slimmest possible sheath dress topped by a matching brief bolero, curved, fitted and fastening just below the bust. It looks much like a one-piece dress until the bolero is removed, revealing a dress which may be low-cut and short-sleeved, or may have a contrasting top.

New Style For Spring
There also is the double-bolero suit, a brand-new idea for spring. This features a slim, high-rising skirt usually attached to a bodice, a matching brief bolero and beneath this a second bolero blouse in white linen or contrasting fabric. When you peel off the top bolero you have a costume with contrasting top.

Fabrics for spring are beautiful, varied and designed to fool the eye. Silks look like wool, cottons look like silk, wools look like chiffon, linens look like tweed and the new synthetics can look like anything from sheerest organdie to men's wear worsted.

All tones of brown are running a close race with navy as the favorite color for spring suits and costumes, most of which are lightweight and planned for warm-weather wear.

Coats Are Looser
Coats develop a looser look, in contrast with the sheath line of suits and dresses. Some have low-placed fullness, some have wider shoulders or dolman sleeves.

There are more long evening gowns than formerly, following the current trend toward greater formality.

Also new in the spring lineup is the harem skirt, with a wide band at the hemline, drawing the skirt into a narrow line at the bottom.

engineer, appeared Tuesday afternoon before a legislative committee investigating charges of extravagance in the use of commission funds. The hearing was closed to the public.

Yosko, chairman of the investigating committee, said that Porter named as making the trip at a cost of $4,090 Alex. Miller, former chairman of the commission; William H. Wilson, Easton, chief engineer, and J. Lawrence Davis, of Bangor, a commission attorney.

Women Make Money At Man's Business

BARRETT'S FERRY, Va. (AP) — Two widows and a young miss have achieved success here in what's usually considered a man's world.

They operate a hunting-fishing mecca on the banks of the Chickahominy river. They rent boats and motors, duck blinds and dock facilities and sell fishing tackle and bait. You can also rent a hunting cabin.

Mrs. Ellen Hofmeyer is president of the company. Her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hofmeyer Midkiff, is vice president and treasurer, and Miss Ellen Browning, a granddaughter of Mrs. Hofmeyer, is their assistant. Mr. Hofmeyer started the business and at his death the women folk carried on.

They also hunt and fish themselves and they encourage men to bring their wives with them on their trips.

WON AND LOST

KNOBEL, Ark. (AP) — The woman mayor of this tiny Arkansas town had a tough time gaining reelection, but she managed to do it.

Miss Pauline Baker and Harley Gowen tied in the regular election, so the state attorney general ordered a run-off.

Miss Baker won but the men gained control of the government, by ousting three women from the five-member City Council.

ARMY OKAYS NEW SWAMP FOX UNIT

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Swamp Fox unit at Brady, Tex., has the Army's official go-ahead signal.

The 4th Army also let it be known it had supplied weapons and professional guidance for what it called the "Independent Texas military organization."

The Swamp Fox unit is composed of nine boys from 9 to 13 years old, headed by "Acting 1st Sgt." Garry Bob Moore, 13, and Sgt. 1/c James Robert Ables.

Describes Training
Lt. Gen. J. H. Collier, 4th Army commander, first became aware of Swamp Fox when he received a letter from the boys. The letter described the after-school training unit, its foxholes, sandbags and use of rocks for grenades.

Would the 4th Army please send some dummy grenades, broken guns, "battered helmets, old belts, canteens, torn clothes and anything else you are going to junk and throw away?" the letter asked. "We will gladly pay postage," the letter added airily.

Parents Foll Plan
The next mail brought a hurried note asking the 4th Army to forget the whole thing. Swamp Fox members had received some parental advice about mailing costs.

Gen. Collier, impressed by the boys and their declared intention to join the Army when they were old enough, wasn't willing to forget it all. He wrote Sgts. Moore and Ables asking the whole Swamp Fox unit — if parents agreed — to visit Fort Hood.

A quick acceptance, signed by Garry Bob who had meanwhile been promoted to Commandant Moore, arrived.

Go On Post Tour
At Ft. Hood the nine Swamp Fox members and their mascot — 9-year-old Elizabeth Ricks — were taken on a tour of the post. They ate C-rations, made dry runs with small arms, swarmed through tanks and helicopters, and were greeted personally by Gen. Collier.

From old equipment that had been gathering dust, they were then issued helmet liners, pistol belts, canteens, a pup tent, a first-aid pouch, and — as a result of lucky find — some wooden training rifles.

TARNISH SPRAY
Housewives may soon be able to spray their silverware between uses with an anti-tarnish coating that gives lasting protection but can be removed easily by washing in soap and water before the silver is used again. Plans are under way to package the spray in push-button aerosol containers.

BILL PROVIDES MALE CHIEF AT LAURELTON UNIT

HARRISBURG (P) — A male superintendent at Laurelton State Village in Union County would be authorized under a measure ready for Gov. Leader's signature today.

Only Sen. Wolfe (R-Union) opposed the plan in a 45-1 vote by the Senate Tuesday night.

The legislation grew from the resignation last year of Dr. Effie C. Ireland as superintendent of the institution for mentally defective women. Present law limits the chief position at Laurelton to a woman physician.

Can't Find Woman
Dr. Ireland's resignation followed charges by Secretary of Welfare Harry Shapiro of cruel treatment of inmates at the institution. A long series of public hearings by a special legislative committee was held on the charges.

Since then, the department has been unable to find a qualified woman physician to accept the post.

Other House bills passed by the Senate and sent to the governor would:

Increase expenses paid constables for transporting vagrants to jail from 10 to 15 cents per mile.

Permit the Department of Health to accept at state sanatoria patients suspected of being infected with tuberculosis in addition to those diagnosed as having the disease.

Another bill passed unanimously by the Senate and returned to the House for agreement on amendments would authorize the issuance of non-debt revenue bonds for capital improvements to borough sewer systems, water works, electric or power plants and gas distribution plants.

The amendment provides for adjustment or increase, if necessary, of rates or rentals to set up a reserve fund for depreciation of properties or future plant improvements.

Also sent back to the House for approval of Senate amendments was a bill increasing the maximum appropriation by counties for agricultural extension work to 15,000.

The House bill originally provided only $12,000.

SENTENCE EMBEZZLER
PHILADELPHIA (P) — Edward C. McCall, 49-year-old former credit supervisor of the Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank, was sentenced Tuesday to serve 4 to 10 years in Eastern State Penitentiary for embezzling $300,000.

McCall was tried without a jury before Judge Joseph Sloane, who told the defendant: "It seems apparent that you merely squandered what you stole." McCall had testified that the money went for "wine, women and song."

PERISHES IN BLAZE
LANSDALE, Pa. (P) — Mrs. Margaret Corson, 51, was killed Tuesday night in a fire that destroyed much of her second floor apartment here.

List specifically the counties covered in supervision of miners examining boards in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Carbon, Schuylkill and Northumberland counties.

Permit anthracite and bituminous mine inspectors to serve until the age of 56—or even beyond if they have served four years or more by that time. The current limitation is 50 (two bills).

Bills sent to the House for agreement on minor amendments would:

Require insulation of conveyor belts in mines employing more than five men at one time.

Exempt bituminous mines employing less than five persons from having a foreman.

Require strip mine operators to post a $6,000 rather than a minimum $3,000 bond as surety for filling in abandoned operations.

Sent back to Senate committee for amendment was a bill to appropriate 1½ million dollars for sealing, dewatering and flushing and extinguishing fires in abandoned coal mines. The House-passed measure called for 2½ million. The Senate appropriations committee was to boost the figure once again by an indefinite amount.

Girl, 7, Has Her 25th Heart Attack

NEW ALBANY, Ind. (P) — Seven-year-old Sheila Whitehead is back in the hospital again, suffering from her 25th heart attack.

The little blonde, blue-eyed girl's heart is too big for her body, doctors say, and they have advised her mother, Mrs. Hazel Whitehead, an operation may be fatal.

SEEK REDUCTION OF COAL FIELD FIRE HAZARDS

HARRISBURG (P) — A plan designed to cut fire hazards in coal fields was sent to Gov. Leader today following Senate approval.

The measure, to require permits for waste disposal grounds in bituminous and anthracite mining areas, was one of five coal bills passed by the Senate last night and forwarded to the governor.

Three others were returned to the House for agreement on amendments and a fourth went back to Senate committee for amendments.

Pass Other Coal Bills

PENNSYLVANIA SNOW BLANKET DISAPPEARING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Snow-blanketed eastern Pennsylvania received much-needed help from the sun Tuesday in the form of a slow but sure thaw.

There was still a major portion of the heavy snowfall in evidence with overnight subfreezing temperatures undoing some of the melting effects of Tuesday's clear and sunny weather.

In at least two ways the weather was perfect. A sudden thaw might have posed some flood problems and the area's children were happy with their sledging.

All Schools Open
Virtually all the schools that closed because of the twin storms — one coming last Friday and the other a 32-hour snowfall starting last Sunday morning—were open today.

Public transportation—railroads, bus lines, trolleys—was back on a normal basis. All but a few isolated roads were plowed and open to traffic.

With spring already a day old, the state could look forward to more reasonable weather in the days to come.

Meanwhile, however, a high pressure area centered in south-eastern Ohio sent a flow of cold air over Pennsylvania. An overnight low of one above zero was reported at Philadelphia. In outlying Philadelphia suburbs the mercury dipped as low as nine above.

Fresh Snow Harbors New Found Facts On Wildlife

By DION HENDERSON

The Associated Press

When there's fresh snow on the ground, the outdoors can be fun for folks who are nosy. A gossip columnist's most, purple prose pales beside the stories that new snow tells about your wildlife neighbors.

But it's not only painfully detailed accounts of regrettable dillyng and dallying in the wild community that can be read. There are stirring tales of adventure, and chronicles of bravery and sacrifice that would credit any human library.

That's what new snow can be: The poor man's wildlife library, if only you'll take the trouble to read.

Don't Need Cabin In Woods
You don't have to live in a cabin in the wilderness to practice this neglected skill. The scale upon which tales are told do not materially affect their meaning. The hero is a hero, or a clown or a clown, whether mouse or moose.

And the mouse engineer who builds his microtime marvels of tunneling through grass on the tree lawn in front of the public library compares to the wilderness moose as the writer of a best seller does to a garret poet — his stuff may not be so impressive, but a lot more folks can see it.

Here are the authors you can read — and the ways you can recognize their style — no matter how city bound you are:

Look Like Elves
The mice, busy fellows all, and sportive by nature despite their precarious existence. Look on the snow for the tracks like two barefoot elves walking in lockstep. Woodmouse and house mouse may

Spring Flowers Go To The Head

The Associated Press

If you're a girl on a budget you may do your Easter hat shopping at a hat bar. And this spring hat bars offer gay new accents to spring costumes.

With the importance of flower hats in the new fashion picture, little flower-covered clip hats are blooming all over the place these days. These are the half-hats usually built on a bicycle clip which are perennially popular.

A particularly effective one widely available throughout the country is a double crescent completely covered with flowers in any color to match or accent any costume. It can be adjusted to fit any headsize, curving gracefully around the head, flatter both face and hair.

It comes with a puff of French veiling, gay enough to add a breath of spring to Easter suit or cocktail dress.

NEW HOME MARKET

Home building is no longer based on a housing shortage or other necessity, but rather on the desire of families with rising incomes to own bigger and better homes. This is the conclusion of the United Savings and Loan League in its "Policies — 1956," a series of recommendations to the league's 4,200 member institutions. "The market for new houses should be very good throughout 1956," says the executive committee.

NEW WALL TILE

A new wall tile has been developed with ceramic coating on a steel base. It is lightweight and guaranteed against crazing, cracking or color fading. The manufacturer expects to market it for less than clay tile and says it can be installed faster.

A total of 90,000 prefabricated houses were sold in 1955 for more than a billion dollars without land. House & Home, trade publication, says this represented a gain of about 18 per cent over the previous year. The three largest manufacturers produced more than 30 per cent of the total.

leave the telltale track of a forgetfully lowered tail between the footprints. Field mouse tails are shorter and more easily managed.

Squirrels, which should not long elude the investigator with a tree handy to investigate. Squirrels make tracks like rabbits dragging an anchor, except that when you start snooping after a squirrel you are liable to be caught yourself. The little fellows in fur coats watch their backtracks and aren't hesitant about expressing themselves from a handy limb.

Spring Matchless Gas Range Campaign.

Sonotone Corp. will spend $1,000,000 — $500,000 for newspaper space—to introduce its new "Sonotone 79," a cordless, 3/4-ounce hearing aid.

Balance of the budget (via Doherty, Clifford, Steers and Shenfield) will go to magazines ($300,000) and promotion ($100,000).

Arthur H. Trull, retail sales promotion manager, Montgomery Ward & Co., since Sept. 21, 1955, is quick to point out that for years the giant retail mail order house has placed more than 80% of its advertising dollar in direct newspaper lineage.

"In my opinion," he says, "newspaper advertising offers the most economical and effective means of developing and sustaining a mass media impact within a retail store community."

"Customer needs and preferences differ widely in various regions throughout the country. Newspapers give Wards flexibility, speed and control in keeping our stores competitive on a day-to-day basis at the local level."

"Newspapers are our No. 1

local and retail selling medium," says Robert M. Gray, advertising manager, Esso Standard Oil Co.

"With more than 25,000 independent Esso dealers, we have a real interest in the retail business. By using some 700 newspapers in our marketing area, we give advertising support to our dealers in their own local areas."

Pointing out Esso has used newspaper advertising consistently for years, Gray said, "It is an outstanding and impressive way of building favorable acceptance of our company and Esso dealers, and of selling our products."

"Newspapers are a medium in which we are able to spearhead the complete news of our basic product selling story. As a manufacturer, it is important that we tell the complete selling story of our products to all motorists often and in a medium which attracts customers to our dealers."

"Newspapers give us this opportunity, plus the flexibility and timeliness to meet local conditions."

"And, finally," he adds, "the strong local retail effect of newspapers is shown by the way Esso dealers spend their own money to run tie-in ads with our basic selling messages."

A bill has been offered in Congress which would make women officially "old" at the age of 62. The idea is to make women eligible for social security benefits at 62 instead of 65, the present retirement age. This would shove the ladies into the rocking chair class at a time when most of them are trying to forget the matter for at least 20 or more years.

Drowsiness and a "cat nap" in an easy chair at home can be most relaxing but it's another and very dangerous matter when you're behind the wheel of your car. Hundreds of needless accidents, many of them fatal, happen each year because drivers dozed "for just a second." Drowsiness is a serious danger. Whether caused by loss of sleep, fatigue, physical defect or long periods of monotonous driving, it is bound to cause trouble, many times fatal to others and to the driver. Guard against it by driving off the road, clear of traffic, and rest or sleep awhile before continuing.

President Eisenhower favors

a complete network of modern highways. In a recent statement he said: "The importance of completely modernizing the Interstate Highway System, which links together the principal cities by 40,000 miles of road, is so clear and so widely recognized that it requires no elaboration in this report. The country urgently needs an integrated network of safe, controlled-access highways to relieve existing congestion and to provide for the expected growth of motor vehicle traffic. A modernized interstate system would also help to strengthen the nation's defenses and to reduce the toll of human life exacted each year in highway accidents."

The word "magnet" derives from Megnesium, ancient Turkish city where the magnetism of a lodestone was observed.
